Biographical/Historical Note:

Carolyn Sage Allen Alevra was born in Lufkin, Texas on August 15, 1939 to Carrol Allen and Ann Temple Allen. She was a 1957 graduate of Lufkin High School and a 1961 graduate of the Plan II Program at the University of Texas, where she was a Kappa Kappa Gamma, a Bluebonnet Belle and a Woodrow Wilson Fellow who studied in Italy. Mrs. Alevra earned her Master's Degree at The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University. She was married to Peter Alevra. She became the Temple family historian and worked countless hours researching and compiling the history of the Temple Family for the creation of the Temple Family wheel. She died August 14, 1997 at her home in Santa Barbara, California after a lengthy illness.

The Temple family has roots in Essex County, Virginia. Mrs. Alevra traced the family through the generations from Europe to Virginia to Texas, with all of the generations along the way.
