Title: Angelina County Chamber of Commerce Collection

Collection Number: 2018:001

Creator: Angelina County Chamber of Commerce

Collection Dates: 1924 - 2017

Extent: 89 cubic feet

Language: English

Collection Abstract:

The Angelina Chamber of Commerce was formed in 1919 as the Lufkin Chamber of Commerce and had 102 members at its founding. In 1948 its name was changed to the Angelina Chamber of Commerce to reflect its mission to promote and assist business through the entire county. From its founding and continuing through the present day, the Chamber is supported by its business community members for the purpose of advocating for and improving the business climate in the county. The approximately 90 cubic feet of materials consists of mostly paper records and some photographs. These records range from permanent files kept by office staff, board and committee minutes and their supporting documents, annual reports, financial statements, agreements and contracts with the Industrial Foundation and the Exposition Center, records of programs and events, including the Hushpuppy Championships, the Junior Livestock Show, the Youth Fair, and the Forest Festival.

Biographical/Historical Note:

The Angelina Chamber of Commerce was formed in 1919 as the Lufkin Chamber of Commerce and had 102 members at its founding. In 1948 its name was changed to the Angelina Chamber of Commerce to reflect its mission to promote and assist business through the entire county. From its founding and continuing through the present day, the Chamber is supported by its business community members for the purpose of advocating for and improving the business climate in the county. Through its history, the Chamber has sponsored the Youth Fair, championed the formation of Angelina College, created the visitor and convention bureau, created and run the Texas Forest Festival in 1938 and continues this event in the present day, and spearheaded the fundraising for the George H. Henderson Exposition Center. The Chamber has also raised money through the United Way.
