

Clay, Station, March 31, 1904

Wife, Ester, Perinaton

Gimpson, Texas

My Kiled Niece & Friend

I will try to answer your welcome letter. I received some days since. I was glad to hear from you. And that you still retain interest enough in this country to wish to visit it some day. Well little girl I do not know nothing likely to interest you here. The boys are not worth killing, & the girls think they are awful nice.

So I judge it is out there I seldom see Hattie or Sue.
Most of the people you knew here have left except the Perinaton Thomases & Cummings. Harmon Thomas married the sweetest little Caddy I know of. I never met her but one time. Her & Miss Liona spent a day with Nettie while she was with me. Dick is the largest one of the family.

Sue & Marjorie have grown very much. Lin said look out, Ester.
Her little old baby is the smartest & little darkey out of jail.

My health has been very poor for the past year.

Ester Make the best use you can of your chance to study.

And above all else be governed by your Ma's advice. Don't think you do not need it. She knows what is best for you. Never associate with any one against her wish.
Will close for this time. I remain as always, Your Friend & Uncle.

A. B. Miller.