 the one that loves
 you: dearly -
 A
 all night darling & will send our letters separate
 now.
 Bye,
 Bye

Timpson Texas.

Miss Esther Pennington.

Dear Sebast H.

I will answer your most kind and appreciated letter I received a few days ago and was so glad in deed to hear from
 you. "I have just finished washing the supper dishes and thought I would (ans) my darlings letter. "yes" darling I sure did have a fine time.
 but if you had of been here you know we would have had a more nice.

D.

like him no I sure dont.
 "Oh": "yes," tell Sae a "Sweet":
 "sweet" "sweet." Hello." ha! ha ha. what a time I have had with Maggie it was a time as big as a house. ha ha. she said tell F. M. Hello. for her.
 and she said you might beat her now but she said she would beat you this summer.
 she told me that her and F. M. was going to correspond when school was out. and she said she knew she would beat you, ha ha. I will tell and E. for Edwin again

you more in the next letter that will tickle you almost to death but say I hope you wont die - I-I-I- sure am scared of Bertha. What made you tell me I am scared all-most to death. so you will be tickled to death and I am scared to death and I guess both of us will die the same time. ha ha- you needen to pay any attention to my foolishness. I hope those 6 biscuits didnt hurt poor little Eric for I do think he is so cute

H

"Yes." I know he is small and biscuits is a
partly meal-for him.
"Yes," it does show he is lazy. but don't tell Annie I said he was lazy for it might cause trouble among the white. I can sympathise with Orange for my $8.
has been gone and it makes any body feel bad. "Yes," I saw that frisky little Bennie the other night there has been a protracted meeting going on at the Christian church this week and

Y.

I saw her up there. I havent went but one night I have had so many hard old pitched lessons to get that mamma wouldnt let me go. "yes!" I do feel sorry for you poor child it is too bad. but I hope you all can make it all right which do you like the best or is it any of my business. F. M. or Ollie. both of them are right cute. No, I dont get tired of reading such a sweet letter as yours was I sure kids
 I had to get that letter

H. for Henry, ha ha

but I don't have half the good nerves to send you as you do me. Oh.
Darling Sweet H. Archie has gone a goin he went back to the railroad.
Claud. come home Tuesday but he has gone to Lufkin now. Oh I tell. See I am glad that he enjoyed my company but I am sure he did not enjoy mine any better than I did his. but I hope I will be able to make him enjoy his self the better.

J

Next time we are to gather for I am no hand to talk to strangers.

so we are not strangers now, well I am so sleepy that I cant hardly write. But you will have to excuse bad writing and spelling take them as kisses. I know you are tired of reading this scornful letter.

oh say I liked to have for gotten it we couldnt have our party for the meeting but we will give one some time I didnt know about the

J.

meeting when I wrote to you about the intertainment I well I said Hello to my Honey this morning. So I will close. for I can't write any longer.
so write me all the good news and a long sweet letter. write soon.

to your Sweet Heart.
and true loving friend
Bye Bye. Darling D. H.
Yours so sweetly.
oh. yes. tell that little Ade Evie a sweet Hello.
for me. Bye Bye.
Darling

P.S. Oh say darling
you all be sure and
Come Sunday.
I like to have far got but you all be sure and come we sure will have a time we sure would have a time.

Bye bye again
Please dont let anyone see this old letter. D.S.H.
Answer soon darling

as you can.
