

always Remember the one that loves you darling
Esther

for another letter.
Timpson Texas.
April. 4/18. 1906.

Miss Esther Pennington.

Dearest friend
I will answer your most kind and sweet letter after so short a time oh. excuse me for a few minutes till I put on bread for dinner. Bye Bye.
(B.) Hello. Sweet heart here it come again how are you now I am getting along fine. oh say darling you and Orenge and Eric come Saturday evening we are going to have an entertainment. I didn't know we was going to have it when I wrote your other letter.

B-for Bye Bye

we are talking of having an egg drawing we will buy the egg's Candy Eggs and draw them like you would apples. we sure will have a time & hope you all can come. Saturday eve. wouldn't we have a big old time and go to Sunday school and church Sunday mornny and hunt eggs in the after noon we sure will have a time if you all come. oh say I have stoppped school for this year. and you know I am proud - no. darling I don't blame you from not wanting to stay

C. for Clifford.

down there. if your fellow is not going to be there mine will I be here I guess if he dont have to go off and you know if he does he will kill me almost. will you tell Sel. he can come to the party Saturday night if he wants to and if he dont tell him to stay down there. which one of the Porterfields girls is Sel's girl I heard he went down there Sunday eve. oh say, tell Erle that he must be sure and come for Miss Alice Bryner. sure does want to get acquainted

D. for. darling.

with him. tell him to be sure and come and I will assure him a good time if any body has any. oh how I wished for you Sunday eve. I sure did have a fine time Sillie Elma Armstrong & Helen Tower and Myrtle Nelson & myself went to see Alice Bryner. and we sure had a fine time. and Tommy Nell was there and Alice & Sillie Elma played the Organ and the rest of us sang. we sure had a time. Well darling I sure do want you all to come. come Saturday

E. for Evil. hahq.

if you can. and I know you can if you will try. ha ha say. Darling tell me it sure would be bad if he didn't come. but it could be worse. for it sure would be bad if my little Henry. couldn't be here. but I hope he can. oh dear my girl I sure do want to see you all. it seems like it has been a year. be sure and come. we sure will have a time we will tear up the place. Oh. say our Rose bushes are just as red as blood with roses they are the prettiest things.

It. for friends.
 I most ever saw. in my life. we have lots of white Roses. to, be sure and come I am sure you can talk to Clifford like he is awful cute and the funniest thing you ever saw. well it is time to sit dinner so I guess I had better close. by. telling you all to be sure and come.

So answer soon to your ever lasting friend and Sweet heart.

Love Hardworth.
 P.S. Annie said tell you a sweet hello for her.

G.

Remember me my darling though death may bid us part your name in golden letters is written on my heart.

Bye Bye-

answer soon.

Darling
