

1

Edgewood

Miss Esther,

my only and

I will endeavor to have a disten-
chat with you, as I am so homesome
well Esther I have left home, & am
at waters I have been here about,
a week, that is the reason I cannot write sooner, I shall excuse me, & I

2,

will any sooner
 next time I guess I will go home the first of July. I have got to cousins a coming the first
 of July. Darling
 you spoke of the third Sunday at 8 October that time
 suits me but I don't know whether I can get ready by that time or not I

3

will let you know
 before that time
 if I can't get ready.
 Darling I still love you just the same old way. well
 I am sitting on the floor. & you must excuse bad writing & be sure to write soon but I want to hear from you the worst kind
 so go & by my intended. Father.
 Fred