Miss. Esther Remington
Simpson, 13

Dear little girl yours
of recent date to hand

Esther you will never know how glad I was get your letter I thought you had given all your thoughts to that other fellow & forgotten me. Dont forget the picture for I sure want
one. tell the artist to have them good

By the way you have quit speaking of coming down this summer. you must not give up the trip for I want to see you very much.

Come down, &
if the roads is good & I keep my team we will all go down to Roane Prairie. I know you want to see little Luther Darnford.
How was the picnic at Longview

I have a correspondent at longview but have not heard from there
since the Picnic.
Please excuse this short letter, little friend for I am in an awful hurry. write soon & long letter. as ever yours W. J. Bradham

P.S. Mrs Russell is dead. & Mrs Frank Mear
is not expected to live yours in haste
