

Merle, Texas,

June the 15, 1905

Mrs. Esther Remington
Harrison,

Dear little girl. yours of recent date to hand &
contents duly noted.

Your mother

I am always glad to hear from you. wish
I could see you this eve.

I could tell you
more in an hour
than I could write you
in a day. your picture

2

is real good. & many thanks for it, will
send you one of mine
as soon as I have some made. I havent
any at present but
what has mustach &
I know you wouldnt
want one of them,

Well I am
sure glad your fellow
is mad. maybe you
will think of me
a little more.
When I think of you

3

I think of this little verse.

~~Often~~

Sad and lonely by my window do I often
think of thee.

and I wonder little darling do you ever
think of me

By the way
I have a correspondant
at Longview, how far are you from there

It is just
as hot & dry here now
as it was wet

4

allow me to Compliment you on your looks. I think that the Lee County, Danford ought to be proud of you. I think I am about ready
 to lay my self at your feet as well as Danford.

By the way
 I have fell out with the whole Danford generation. Now I know you wont like
 me any more

5-

but I think they are all a people of very
inferior principals.
I like old man Lee Sanford well but his family is out of my Class of people.

Do you
want to go to Vanderdt County? Old man
Taylor Sanford says it is the sicklest place on earth and they certainly look as if it might be so.
Be sure and
Come down this Summer

if you never see Vanzandt County, I know I had rather see you than
any of the people there

I have some Water. Melons. Come
down & help me
eat them. be sure,

why do you never
write of over four pages.

yours till Death

W. J. Bradham

write soon.
