

(1)

Simpson Tex

Sep 19 - 1905.

Dearest Esther I take great Pleasure in again writing to you I have been having the feaver about ten days I wanted to go to Shady the last nights of preaching but my feaver said for me to stay at home, I hope you have not been having any more feavers, Well

Sweet heart my thoughts are constantly with you and your pleasant face

2

and sweet smile seem even now to be before my mind's eye. I do not know that it is much satisfaction to you to be so often reminded of my love, but it is a pleasure to me to speak my thoughts on the subject and perhaps I am selfish in this respect. Be that as it may, I am sure my whole soul is with you. and the only anxiety I have is the fear that I may not be enabled to prove my self worthy of

3

you, I shall do my Best however To merit your constant love, waiting and hoping for The happy day When we part no more, We will miss Esther I guess you will be at The Bayou Sunday I am going if I am not sick and I hope it will be so That Both of us can go Sunday Well I will close for this time hoping To see you soon or hear from you one, your faithful and loving friend Monroe Williams Simpson R.F.D #1

P.S. Miss Esther do not let any one else read this letter and I will not let no one see your letters