Miss Esther Pennington
Dearest one

I will answer your most kind and long looked for letter Darling it has been nearly two months since I wrote
to you and you have
just now answered
Darling you and Orange & Alice seems like Kin folks to me when I get a letter from ^{you} I am as proud as if I had got one from my Cousin that I haven't saw in over three years. and always

83. for the good

glad to hear from you.
Oh "yes" Darling etc.
I am having some big old times. And wish you could be with
me. Annie is not at home and our lone some. we went to church this morning
and she went home
with May Lizzie.

Porterfield it has been raining & I am afraid it will be
to wet to go to church
to night yes I do.
believe Annie & Eric
is going to make up
I hope they will for I love oh I mean like him as well as she does I think ha ha^{ee}.

will now I do like him.
 Oh Dear I haven't saw Archie in a month. how I want to see him. he came on Saturday
 after I answered your letter and he told me the next time I wrote to you to tell you a sweet Hello. and to tell you when he,
 got rich he was coming to old Brady to see all of his pretty girls. again he don't do a thing but work yes I saw Ed Sunday night he was with his girl they looked mighty cute. to gather yes Darling we will go
 if you all will come after us but I don't

O for darling.

expect we could stay
any longer than sun-er we sure will go. Some with you all if you come.
oh say darling you all Come up here and go to Church some we are having a nice meeting
we went to day and it was so happy
and just shouted all over the house. Come Saturday eve and stay until Sunday eve
if you can't stay any longer if Eric is able I sure was sorry to hear that he was sick
and hope he will get

For Esther.

well soon. I have got a hole lot to tell you Darling but I Cant tell you now I have got to Cook Supper. and milk the Cow. so excuse bad writing and come
if you can. we sure
will go home with
you if we are living
and want we have a time. well Darling
answer this as soon as you can. and a long letter. Well I will say good Bye. Be a good girl. and ans.
soon. to yours still
