

TIMPSON, TEXAS,

July the 23

1906

Miss Esther

Dear darling with the greatest pleasure i will write you a few lines hope you wont be so bissey you cant read it guess you have never thought how near we come giting killed last night Esther & got home all right the darkest night & ever saw & felt like i had your prayers in going over that dark road guess we had a nice time yesterday didnt we hope the good time with us has just come Esther Brother gibson gave me advice & never will forget it was emcoursing it was about you he looks on you as i do he said you was an exception of a girl he said the same about me he has been wishing for this long time he said we would have his earnest prayes he will be on hand wednesday evening

Yours devoted husband
Yank