Mrs Esther Ramsey

Dear wife + children I thought I would write you a few lines this evening this being both of us well hope these few lines will find you and the children well

I guess I need not tell how long some I am staying at home without you and the children I have so much to do I havent been off the place since you left home I cant go to preaching any till you come back so I would start back as soon as you git this note little Lenard stays right with me all the time he ask every day when you will be at home

we are going to town in the morning if I can mold up my butter &
have it in the well now I wish you wege here to mold the butter for me

well I heard from you but once since you left I thought I would hear from you Saturday but did not hope you
will start home
as soon as you
git this letter
hope to hear from you soon I am yours
as as ever, Frank

P. S. Leonard
beg come home
Sunday
