Dear Esther:-

This is to advise you that Newton, Pennington, of Clay, Texas, died in Brenham, Texas, on January 9th, 1933 and was buried by side of uncle Zach on January 10th, 1933

He was sick with bright fever and was in hospital about two weeks. His will was that every one went to Uncle Billy, who is very poorly and getting feable.

Preston is now living on the ranch with uncle billy, I guess will look after him, Aunt Dellar, and a cousin from Austin, Texas ~~with~~ was with uncle Newton, when the end came, this only leaves Uncle Billy and aunt Dellar, from Fathers side of the house, until george died about four years back.

Orange was up last week for a week, went home sunday, Lottie and charlie came after her, all was very well, Let us hear from you we are now living in the city for the winter, only at 1215 N. Haskell ave. let us hear from all of you, with best wishes I am,

s I am
