

Garland, Tex
Oct. 12, 1941

Dear Mrs Ramsey.

Are you all drowned out yet? We have moved again. We're 15 miles from Dallas now. What ~~it~~ is Ellis everything on. We would like to see him some day if we go in to Dallas. I was just thinking about him today. Guess Woodrow will go to work on a study job here in Garland tomorrow. I sure was sorry to hear about Mrs. Wallace dying. Well I guess we'll get our cotton stamps this week. ans. soon. Lots of love -
Lucille

I think Daddy is going to move on our place. He wants to live it will know soon.
