Dear Ellis.

Well I am very hot and tired but I might as well get rested because I have to go back to work at 5:00 clock. I have to go back to Aunt mama went back to Aunt Oranges this morning. Then I guess she will ~~get~~ ^{have} for Timpson in the morning. How have you all been making it? Mama is worrying about whether you will have any dirty clothes or not.

Ellis they are training women for bus drivers now. The other day I was coming home on a bus and the man that was teaching this woman to drive was writing in his report book and the woman went down the wrong tunnel you know where you go and come out on Swiss. Anyway another bus started to come ⁱⁿ out at the other end and saw her just in time. Then she stopped at a corner where she wasn't supposed to because someone rang the buzzer she thought she was (over) supposed to stop. I got off of that bus.

Then a woman this evening was said to have walked in front of a car and fainted.
We saw her after she had already been rescued. A police car and an ambulance was already out there but she was not even scratched. Something funny about that too.

Well you had better answer this because you have time to write now.

Love,
Emma Dean
