Dear Mama and Ellis,
How are you all making it?
I am trying to write but I can't because there is quite a bit of noise going on.

I am going to go over to Lillie's tonight I think and take those handkerchiefs so Lillie can send them.

Why didn't you tell something about what kind of crop you all made?

Is Ellis really going to get reclassified? What class is he in now?

I decided not to go over to Lillie's
as I called up and she was not home
Guess she is at work.

As the stores stay open until 9:00 tonight I think I will go downtown and meet a girlfriend who gets off then. Have just listened to Henry Aldrich and he was pretty good.

It sure has been pretty today.
Warm and windy and ^{the} sun shining
just like March. Over!

I talked to Aunt Tressa the other day and she said she thought Bud was back in the U.S. or had you heard anything about it? She said too that Al had cut down on his drinking a lot.

Everett is still fooling around and will probably be doing the same the next time you hear from him.

Answer soon

Dear Kennard

Got your letter and decided to surprise you and answer right quick. Sure am hearing some good music right now

Went to work at 7:00 this morning and got off at 4:00 but I still don't like those hours but I will get different hours next week.

What do you do besides go to school? Don't you work any? When have you been to see Dorothy? Hope you like these cute little pictures of me. I don't like them at all but they will do I guess.

What are you and mama going to do if Ellis has to go to the army? And if Toby has to go you all can go down there I guess and live.

Went bowling again the other night and made 86. Some scare eh what old boy? Will go again in a little while. If you were here you could go too. You would really like it. I started to throw a ball the other night and I just almost went down the alley too. I slid a little and finally stopped.

Saw a horror show about the japs the other day. And I tell you what. These japs would throw little babies up in the air and bayonet them when they came down. It was some show. Answer soon.

Love.
