Dear Dennerd,

So your nice dart game was broken when you got it was it? Well we'll sue the Post office for that. But I'm glad you like it. Who wins or do you and Ellis play?

Thank you for that delicious powder. You can almost eat it, it smells so good. Got some more Cologne but one bottle is sickening it is so sweet.

Sure am hungry. Went to sleep a while ago and dreamed of food. Guess I will have to go get some after a while.

Sure was glad to hear you did so well on your exams. Hope you keep that prize money. I'd so like prize.

I think Leonard is almost a normal human. He asked me if I had seen a certain show that he thought was good and ask me had I been bowling lately. I did see that one and it was no time for love. And if you think I like Frank Sinatra after hearing him sing the other night you are crazy. He just ruined the whole thing. Sounded like he had been drinking Syrup. Maybe he had.

You make sure you continue those good grades now and will see you Saturday maybe.

Love,

Emmie Dean
