

Dallas Texas.

Jan. 12. 1944.

Dear mama & boy's:-

After so long will answer your letter. How are you all? we are up. sure is had to day. its raining & freezing this vine by the window is hanging with ice clys.

I've just got back from the store sure was a job as I had to ride the street car but I had to go as this is the only day I have off.

I talked to Emma last night she said she had been down there & that all of you were sick

2

with Colds, hope all are better by now. its awful weather for the glue. I've called Emma 4 or 5 times & Couldn't catch her at home I left my no. for her to call me, but she said they didn't tell her, I told her she could come over or call me once in a while but she done, I sure get lonesome here by my self most all the time, but any way she got to eat sausage there, that left more for me, ha. & I eat most all of it to, it sure was good, & thanks for it. Wish I could come down, but dont know just when I can.

3

Archie takened Mrs Anderson to her sisters last Sunday was a week ago. Leola quit work.

Emma has you some quilt scraps here also a Package for Wm. Howard. Wish she had takened them, as dont look like I can get a chance to send them. Ie got Wm. a pair of Pajamas made, do you think you could work the button holes, or make Darts. Could I hate not work them but I have so little time, I have him another pair to make, I guess he could use them now, so I think I'll just send them next week, we'll don't know any news & I want to write you, a few lines, so take care of your selves & write soon Love to all.

+

Lillie