Dear Home folks:

Just a few lines to let you know I got the package yesterday, was very glad to get the peanuts and bath cloths, sure do thank you for sending them. Hope this finds you all O.K., I am about the same.

Hope you all are having some dry warm weather now. I got a letter from Dorthey today telling me about Emma Dean coming home, I haven't heard from her or Lillie in several days. Dorthey said they saw that picture show "This is the Army," Mamma I hope you all will go see it if you have a chance, I will pay for it if you want to see it, I am sure you all would enjoy it, I know Dennard would like to see it.

Have you all put the tomatoes in the field yet? Mamma have you got your bed-room suit yet?
Guess you all got my letter by now.
Say Ellis did you get the box of junk? hope you did.

Mamma I wish you would tell me how to get these Corns off my toes; I have one ^{on a toe} of each foot, sure do give me a pain; Take Care of yourselves, trusting I will hear from you soon.
Love, Leonard.
