Dear mama & Boys:

Just recieved your letter,
Its the first time I've heard from you in nearly a month, I answered your last letter, I dont know why you didnt get it.

I'm sorry you didnt
like The Candy. no I
didnt know you didnt
like Chalocate, or I wouldnt have sent it. If I had got some thing for you to wear & it had not fit Ihy want exchange

it any more. So I did the best I knew how.
 I guess Emma Dean told
 you about Everett, his trial comes up to morrow.
 I asked her to come &
 spend the night with me the night before she went home, as I was here by my self &
 so worried & lonesome,
 but she wouldn't do
 it, she got a ticket & come out here early
 the next morning to get a kodak tho.
 How are you all

getting along. we are up, I had to go to the
Dr. yesterday + get a shot I'm having those nervous spells again. guess its mostly worry. dont nobody know only those that have gone through with it just what it is.

Guess you all had a nice time mothers day.
sure would have liked
to been there, you didnt say, but I guess Emma has come back. she said she would call me, but she hasnt yet.

Well its sure is getting hot, that place sure is hot where I work. so much heat from the skillets, & the work seems to be getting harder. I cut between 6 & 7 hundred chickens Sunday. Everett says if ever thing turns out alright we are going to leave here. but I'm worried & so is he. The man lied on him, but that dont make it any easier for him.

Well I'm tired &

so will go. if you will get a Pattern & send me I'll make you a dress, I have some, but you could pick out one you like & the right size better than I could. I sew at nights when I'm not working, so
write soon
Love Lillie
