

Mother's Day Greetings

Monday eve;

May 15, 1944

Dear Home folks;

I am wondering why I don't hear from you all, you know I just got a Card and a letter from you all in about three weeks, if you have wrote more than that, I failed to get it. you should put the return on all your letters, so if I did not get it, you would get it back. Looks like you all would have time to write a Card often if you don't have time to write a letter. I know I have wrote you all a letter every week and sometimes two letters a week. you never wrote me wheather you got the mother's day Card or not, but I got a

Letter from Dorthy today telling me that you got the pin I sent you for mother's day. Hope this finds you all well, I don't feel very good as I still have a very bad cold, I have been almost past going part of the time the last two weeks, I think it is the worst cold I ever had.

Dorthy said it come another big rain, sure hate to hear about it. She also told me about E. D.
Coming home for the week end, I was suprised as I thought she was going to be at home a week as she wrote me that she would get a week vacatation, guess she decided to take it later on in the
