Dear Mama Dinnard and Ellis,
Hope this finds you all fair and warmer than when I was down there.

We got home ok and in plenty of time even if our bus was 45 minutes late. I don't think ~~she~~ was going to have time to go home before she went to work but I had time to go and then come back to town for something
I had to go home first before I could get. The stub for some shoes I had in a shop.

Our kittens have their eyes open. At least one. He is solid white and pretty cute.

Got out pretty light on my room
rent and sure go hate to see this person that is here now go. But she is leaving Tuesday I think.
You remember the house manager
that I told you about.

Went to church this morning
and was planning to go tonight but never did get to it. Sure was a crowd this morning. There is a balcony as big as bigger than the lower floor and everything was just packed. Was a good sermon too.

Now if I could get all my affairs straight I would be all. I think I have gotten into the habit of worrying too much.

Guess I had better write some more letters so I answer soon.

Love,
Emma Dean.

P.S.

Oh yes our Cousin Earle son called me up this afternoon. His name I forgot but he is the one who graduated the year after I did. And you got a card from him.
