

Sunday nite-12-1944

hello rear sis res you littorw days ago found us very well hope this finds you all ok I could ^{nt} here from you so I thought maybe you had left the town so please answer a little sooner this time I wish I could come down and see you and your new house where is Linard station now you never say anything about him so let me know where he is Please you ask me about Buds wife yls she died she was only twenty to years old so young to die and have to leave her baby her mother has the baby and I hope she sure will be good to it my old hens ar laying very well I get 48 its per doz for all I have to well I wish they all would go to laying yls you tell Ellis I sure do have an Electric stove do you think your children will get to be home with you for Christmas I sure hope they can I would sure like for you to come spend Christmas with us if I could get mr crow off why we would come and stay to an three day with you so if I can why I will drop you a card later so be sure answer soon mr crows daughter is coming Christmas the one in west Texas so I guess if we was to come we would have to come pretty soon I dont have anything new not even a new hat so guess I ware my old ones dont no any news so will close anser soon love your sis
