"The Buzz" Staff

There was a lot of typing to be done on the Buzz Staff. Here, Vera Oliver looks on as Elizabeth Brewer types from the copy held by Nell Nelson, editor of the Buzz.

Writing headlines is a big task in putting out a paper.

Here Leona Beasley points out the headlines to Barbara Hughes while Rubie Johnson makes suggestions.

The paper going to press is a mansized job.

Oscar Ditsworth runs the machine and Johnny Davis prepares more paper while Carolyn Camley checks the finished product.

Hudson Student Council

Our student council, in its third year, has been very active during the 1957-58 school year. Among its activities, it has sponsored chapel programs and activity programs. Pictured, seated left to right are: Joe Berry, parl.; Bill Stone, treasurer; Mike Penn, president; Gwen DuBose, Sec.; and Joe Kartye, vice-pres. Standing, left to right: Miss Billye York, sponsor; Don Traylor, Charles Winthrop, Isaac Goodwin, Sarah Youngblood, Judy Young, Fran Gibson, Jo Carole Deal, Burtie Innerarity and Molly Thompson.

At right are the cheerleaders for 1957-58. They are considered by all to be the best trained cheerleaders we have ever had. Their drills and routines have been a pleasure to watch and they did much to create enthusiasm at all the ball games. They are, front row, Jane Skelton and Gwen DuBose, second row, Pat Womack and Barbara Hudhes and back row, Sandra Hines and Milva Kendrick. The very young lady is Nancy Waller.

Hudson offered physics for the first time in history this year. This makes four sciences being now offered on the high school level. Above, left to right, are Billy Stone, John Sifford, Henry Shoffitt, Kenneth Crawford, Miss York, James Edgington, Gary DuBose, Johnny Davis, James Blackburn and Joe Berry.

Third Row: Bobby Jumper, Rayford Anderson, Sammy Griggs, Charles Wright, Kent Hill and Phillip Jumper.

Co-captains James Brasuell and Bobby Jumper, both seniors, scamper down the court in a practice session. James, the most skilled dribbler on the team, also scored the most points this year. Bobby won three letters in high school while James won two. Both will be badly missed by the Hornets next year.

Coach Norman Higgs is in his first year with Hudson. Although we did not have a winning season, much progress was made and we can look forward to a more successful season under him next year.

Jerry Bishop and Rayford Anderson, juniors, stage a jumping contest in practice.

Don Traylor and Joe Dan Penn, passing.

Speedy Marze, sophomore, climbs up Kent Hill, senior. Hill was the tallest man on the squad.

Mike Penn and Bill Stone, both seniors, go up for the ball in practice. Bill has been a starter for two seasons while Mike has been hampered with injuries.

Traylor and Joe Kartye get set to practice a little passing.

Earnest DeLaFosse, Randall Palmore and Marshall Crawford stretch a little to see who is the tallest.

Sammy Griggs goes into the air to block a shot.

Co-captains Carolyn Carnley and Reba Andrews jump during practice. Carolyn is a senior and Reba a junior. Reba lettered for her third time this year. Carolyn got her second letter.

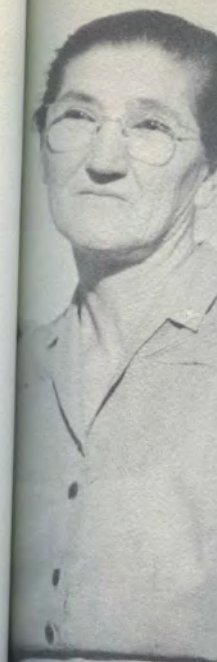

Fran Gibson, Nell Nelson and Wilma Watson show some fancy work during workout. Nell is a senior, Fran and Wilma, sophomores. Nell was high point scorer during this season, while Fran and Wilma were guards.

Carole Poulan, Wanda Simmons and Sue Guerra all jump high to get a rebound in a practice session. Wanda, a junior, has lettered now for three years. Sue is a junior and Carole a sophomore.

These ladies served approximately a hundred thousand meals during the 175 days of this school year. Most will agree that Hudson Students are better this year than ever before. Left to right are: Head cook, Mrs. Hanson, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Goodwin, Mrs. Murphey, Mrs. Temple and Aunt Ocie Landrum.
