Administration

Mr. Horton adds his own enthusiasm when the bonfire is lit.

Mr. James Horton Superintendent

Baseball has a magical ring to Mr. Horton. He takes time each year to coach the Hornet Baseball Team. Here he throws a few practice balls while the pitchers warm-up.

A great deal of any Superintendent's time is spent answering questions on the phone as Mr. Horton exemplifies here.

School Board

Mr. David Bazar, Vice-President, Mr. Roland Weeks, President, and Mr. Clinton Stephens, Secretary.

School Counselor

Mr. Price spends part of his time at Hudson and part of his time at Central doing guidance work.

Mrs. Bittner is the Co-operative Supervisor for Hudson, Central, and Huntington. She does guidance work in all of these schools.

Mrs. Lee, school secretary does bookkeeping and many other duties. She is very essential in keeping things running efficiently.

Organizations

Mr. Daniels, Sponsor, Steve Adams, President, Mike Lawrence, Vice-President, Ronald Womack, Secretary, Ricky Gibson, Treasurer, Terry Clifton, Reporter, and Glenn Dunn, Sentinel. These were the officers and advisor for 1967-68.

Future Farmers of America

James Hendry, Ken Woodall, and Tommy Andrews made up the Greenhand Farm Skills Team. They won 2nd place in District, 1st in Area, and 9th in State with a palpitation test.

These are all of the boys that made up the skills teams that went to District.

Steve Adams presents Mitsy Bryon, chapter sweetheart, with a bouquet of roses and an FFA jacket.

Mike Gipson presents Mr. Daniel with a pair of boots. The FFA boys presented them to Mr. "D" in appreciation for all the help he has given them.

Kenneth Hammock, Edward Glover, Nathan Watson, and Joe Oates learn welding and cutting in Ag III.

Mr. Daniel explains to James Gilland how to make a Bar-b-que pit from a barrel.

Byron McCullom, Danny Alsbrooks, and Ricky Marberry show their skills in making gun racks and shoeshine kits.

Members of the Distributive Education class are: Joe Ross, Sidney Johnson, Billy Marlin, David Eastepp, James Gilland, Jimmy Scoggins, Billy Banks, Wiley Shoemaker, Charles Foster, and Johnny Johnson.

Distributive Education

Officers of the DECA Club are: Joe Ross, President, Sidney Johnson, Vice-President Billy Marlin, Secretary, David Eastepp, Treasurer, Wiley Shoemaker, Reporter, and James Gilland, Parliamentarian.

Homemaking

The Homemaking III girls held their annual style show in the High School Library at Christmas. Modeled by the girls were dresses, jumpers, suits, and after five dresses.

Steve Adams was FHA Beau.

Belinda Jumper modeled at the FHA Style Show.

Becky Lovejoy looked like a professional model.

Ruby Goodwin wore a cute spring outfit.

Pat Raines presented Mrs. Philmon and Mrs. Creech with a present from the FHA girls.

Linda Glover received the Homemaker of the Year Award from Linda Billeau.

Planning meals is a part of Homemaking.

A reception on George Washington's Birthday.

Pep Squad

Mrs. Deerman - Sponsor

Mrs. Deerman, Sponsor, Deborah Bazar, President, Pat Zinkula, Vice-President, Belinda Jumper, Student Council Representative, Dorothy Winthrop, Secretary. These girls served as officers for 1967-68.

The "spirit" organization on campus is the Pep Squad. They do a fine job of backing the basketball team whether they win or lose.

The Pep Squad lines up to bring the boys on the floor!!

Mrs. Peavy gets the speeches started for the Student Council election.

The officers for 1967-68 were: Lessie Henderson, Secretary, Steve Adams, President, and Shirley Turner, Vice-President.

Annual Staff

Selling ads is one of the main duties of the Annual Staff.

What Donna's up to is often wondered by Nancy and Gerald.

Selecting pictures to go in the annual is one of the major jobs in putting an annual together. Getting all of these pictures made is the biggest job of all though.

Mrs. Stone - Sponsor

Showing her everyday calmness.

Cafeteria Workers

Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. Oates, Mrs. Hendry, Mrs. York, Mrs. Stephens, Mrs. Beasley, Mrs. Goodwin, and Mrs. Hanson are the ladies responsible for preparing the meals in the cafeteria.

Mrs. Oates, Mrs. Beasley, and Mrs. York have seen their share of chickens this year.

Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. Hendry take turns emptying trays and plates.

Mrs. Estelle Fredregill is the one that gets the credit for keeping the elementary building always clean.

Mr. C.E. Lenderman is the "handy" man at Hudson. He is capable of playing plumber, electrician, tractor driver, and anything else that can be thought of!!

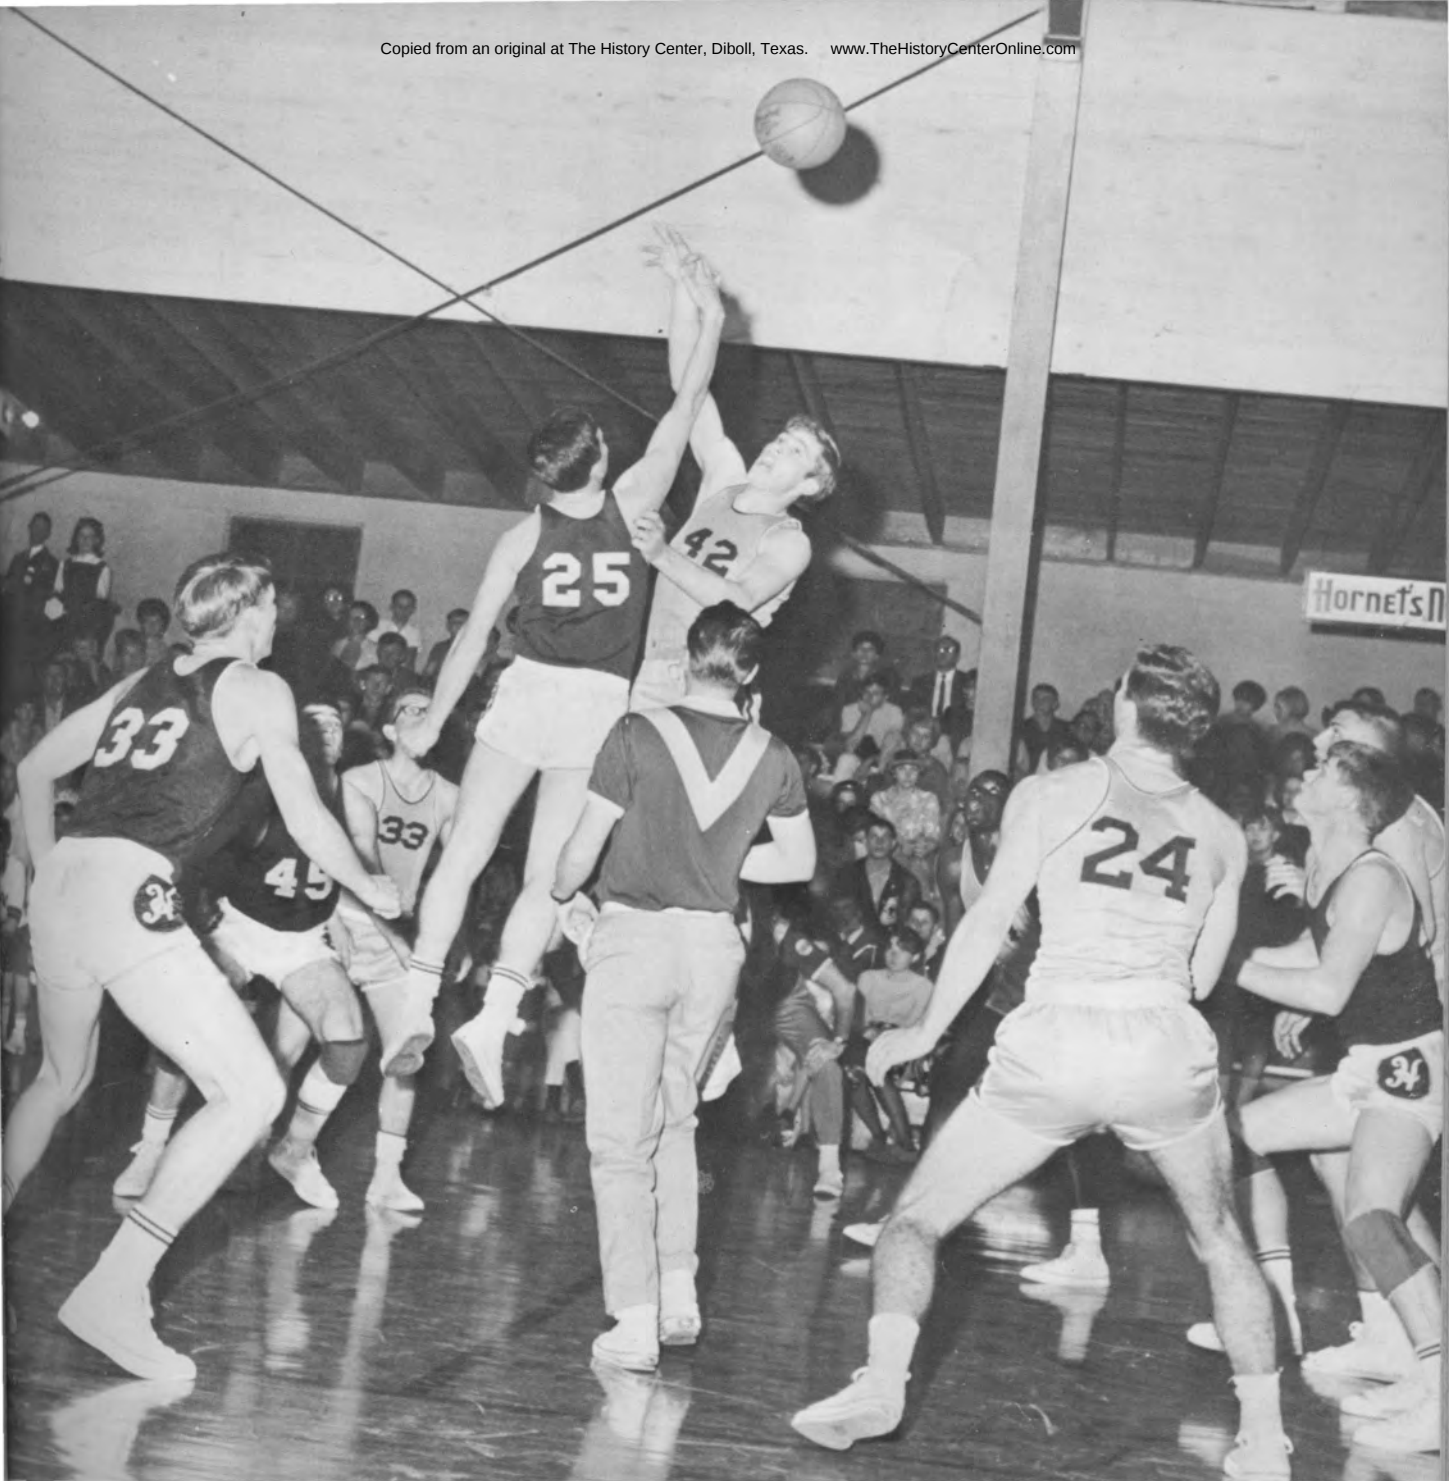

Custodians

Mr. T.C. Mosley is the school mechanic. He is responsible for keeping all of the buses in running order. He also drives a bus.

Mrs. Mosley keeps the high school building clean and sparkling.

Sports

Basketball

Jimmy Horton
Forward

The team for 1967-68 consisted of four Seniors--Kenneth Cox, Glenn Dunn, John Porter, Steve Adams--three Juniors--Kenneth Hammack, Edward Glover, David Willmon--and one Sophomore--Jimmy Horton. Their record--13 wins and 17 losses--did not tell the true story. They lost many times by only a small margin or an over time. They finished the season second in East Zone. The Hornets finished with a 7-3 record in zone play.
