A Day in the Life at DHS...

Life at Diboll High School is no different than any other high school. Teenagers all think and act just about the same. Comments range from "Did I do my homework last night?" to "Oh, come on Miss, let me slide by this one. I promise I'll do it tonight."

These photos are just an overview of some of the things that happen on a typical, ordinary day at Diboll High School.

AS ANOTHER school day comes to a close, Senior Trey Grandgeorge waves goodbye after a typical day at DHS. -Photos by Stephanie Cavazos

LOOK AT Senior Mike Suarez show what he is eating for lunch today.

Diboll's Centennial

Diboll Day proved to be the most exciting event ever for hometown folks and former residents who returned to see this important event take place. For everyone, celebrating Diboll's 100 year anniversary brought to mind how Diboll used to be.

One landmark that symbolizes Diboll's early history is the old commissary store owned by the old Southern Pine Lumber Company and located on Hines. The old commissary served early Diboll well until the 1950s.

Today, it stands as a reminder to everyone of an earlier time in Diboll's history.

The important events that occurred in Diboll's Centennial year were many, such as the dedication of the Lindsey Springs historical marker. Lindsey Springs was the first SPL Company logging camp. The Diboll Garden Club distributed the famous and historical trees to the city's organizations and businesses for planting in honor of the city's Centennial year. The City of Diboll also dedicated its own historical marker in 1994.

BUDDY TEMPLE, grandson of T.L.L. Temple who was the founder Southern Pine Lumber Company, the predecessor of Temple-Inland Corp., gives Diboll's Centennial address.

THIS YEAR'S 1994 Diboll Day Queen candidates are (l-r) Group 4, Jacqueline McGuire; Group 3, Celsa Reyes; Group 2, Michelle Cordell; and Group 1's candidate, the 1994 Diboll Day Queen, Jelyitsa Perez. Jacqueline was runner-up. Total receipts are $317,838.74. Jelyitsa's group raised $99,186; Jacqueline, $88,425; Celsa, $65,559; and Michelle's group raised $64,559.

THE BARBERSHOP quartet, Vocal Express, serenades Jelyitsa Perez after she is crowned Diboll Day Queen.

SITTING IN the front row are the former Diboll Day queens from the past years.

THIS IS the old corporate symbol for Temple-Eastex, the predecessor for Temple-Inland.

JACQUELINE MCGUIRE gives an emotional speech telling about her experiences being a candidate.

PETE AND Donna Smart make a speech to the huge Diboll Day crowd after being named 1994 Citizens of the Year.

VICE PRINCIPAL Brandon Taylor carefully looks over the day's administrative plan.

SCHOOL SECRETARY for-a-day, Stephanie Cavazos, listens to Coach Gary Martel tell her that he'll be good if she gives him a second chance.

HEY, CHECK this out!!! Mr. Joe Garr is late for class. As they say, "There's a first time for everything."

SENIOR JACKIE McGuire takes a day off to relax and pretend that she's doing something.

LOOKIE HERE, everyone!!! Who would have ever thought, "Eric Lucas, a teacher?"

FRESHMAN AMY Mireles drags DHS's big bad boy, Coach Monty Gothard, to the office.

Students Take Over!

Students at Diboll High School designated a day for certain students to take over the school.

On February 14, 1995, the faculty became students again, and a few students tried their hand at being teachers and administrators.

It was a fun experience for most of the students, but for some, it was a different story.

WHAT HAVE we here? Senior Briza Mancha gets in trouble by the new principal, JuaQuin Gonzales?!!!

LASHONDA RUTH does her part and tells Ms. Donna Cassels to, "Go sit down and do your work."

JOSH CLARK returns to class after being sent for a tardy slip by his teacher for a day, Christy Hearne.

TEACHER-WANT-TO-Be, Carrie Grove, takes out her anger on poor Patricia Thomas.

SENIOR LAZARO Robles seems to have this class under control. Really?

UNDERCLASSMEN

FUTURE DHS underclassmen gather in the gym with their teachers for a rowdy pep rally.

FRESHMAN KENNEDY James sits patiently as Senior Archie Jackson puts a grotesque plaster mold on his face.

THIS IS part of the best support staff that is available in Texas public school education. From left to right is Sarah Rios; secretary to the superintendent; Joyce Carr, bookkeeper; and Bea Suarez, administration receptionist and secretary to the Curriculum Director. Not pictured is Lucy Rector, payroll clerk; Karen Fuller, technology director; and Dixie McDuffie, food services director.

INTERIM SUPERINTENDENT Vernon Paul came to Diboll last summer from a position as principal of Seminole (TX) High School. He took a position at Diboll Junior High but then Curriculum Director, Dr. Floyd Worley, resigned to take the superintendency at Apple Springs. Mr. Paul then took Dr. Worley's position as curriculum director. Then after further unforeseen circumstances, he assumed Dr. Campbell's job.

IN MARCH, Dr. Gary Campbell steps down as superintendent to become an administrative assistant in charge of public relations, grant writing and other duties for Diboll ISD.

1994-95 Diboll ISD Board of Trustees

Administrative changes at Diboll ISD

This has been another year of changes at Diboll ISD.

Superintendent Gary Campbell started his second year at Diboll ISD but because of health problems, he stepped down from that position in March to become administrative assistant.

Curriculum Director Vernon Paul stepped in as interim superintendent. He is to be commended for handling this very complex job in such a professional manner.

Then in May, for the first time in Diboll ISD's history, the first female superintendent was hired. Mrs. Carolyn Sewell comes to Diboll officially on July 1 from Pottsboro, TX, where she has been superintendent for three years.

Here at DHS, Principal Rick Cowan left June 1 to become superintendent at Van Vleck ISD. His successor had not been named as of June 8.

DHS administrative staff takes good care of students

MRS. MARY Ingram is the DHS's counselor. She administers the TAAS, schedules classes and gives advice to all students.

PRINCIPAL RICK Cowan looks back one last time at his DHS offices. He left June 1 to be superintendent at Van Vleck.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL John Yonker spends his time evaluating teachers and taking care of student discipline problems.

Teachers-In a Class of Their Own

Principal Rick Cowan left DHS at the end of this school after one and a half years of being DHS principal.

He left to take the superintendent's position on June 1 at the Van Vleck ISD near Bay City.

This was the first year for Assistant Principal John Yonker. Mr. Yonker did a fantastic job in his new position. He came here from Montgomery ISD.

The Texas Forestry Association named new agriculture teacher Larry Poe as their "Teacher of the Year."

Theater Arts teacher Jimmy Smith was a good addition to the school's Theater Arts Department.

For the first time in years, DHS theater students won at district and area UIL competitions, and made a good showing at regionals in Mexia with the UIL one-act play entitled, "The Insanity of Mary Girard."

Other new teachers coming on board this year were Janet Brockman, Debra Oladovich, Coach Leslie Wylie, (second semester) Coach Pam Rogers, Adrien Langevin and Becky Robins.

In the office, Mr. Cowan made Mrs. Milligan the registrar and PEIMS clerk.

Mrs. Lois Clemens was voted Teacher of the Year at DHS.

Traditionally, the Student Council has had one main duty on every high school campus--that is to oversee student elections.

All different types of elections are monitored -- Homecoming queen and her court, Mr. and Miss Diboll High School, Senior personalities, class favorites and officers and the next year's Student Council officers elections as well.

Student Council officers are responsible for getting the ballots together and for counting the votes. In a school the size of DHS, this is a large job.

In addition to taking care of elections, they decorated the stadium for Homecoming. They helped out with the Teacher's Day Off.

They presented a video to the Board members called "A Day at Diboll High School." Also, they presented the sportsmanship awards during half-time ceremonies at the football games.

STUDENT COUNCIL members pay attention while Kristen Bradford presides at a meeting.

National Honor Society

To become considered for admission to DHS's National Honor Society, students must meet the minimum weighted grade point average of 4.3. But having that GPA doesn't guarantee that students can become a member.

"Mr. Cowan appoints a faculty-council of five teachers and they decide on the students by their scholarship, character, leadership and service," Sponsor Mary Ingram said.

The purpose of the NHS is to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership and to develop character in students.

Future Farmer's of America

THE FFA officers are (l-r) Josh Webb, historian; Eric Crager, parliamentarian; Joe Williams, sentinel; Lanton Chumley, president; Kristen Bradford, vice president; John Wilson, chaplain; Bubba Loftin, reporter; Jonathan Smith, secretary and Amy Smith, treasurer.

LANTON CHUMLEY licks his lips as he thinks about the catfish he and Justin Jackson are preparing for the banquet.

The FFA was one of the most active organizations on campus this year.

They hosted a fish harvest in the fall and fried them for their spring banquet guests.

As always, they participated in the district and area leadership contests. They went to state leadership contests at SHSU, and attended the national FFA convention in Kansas City.

They took a trip to the Houston rodeo, and showed their animals at the Houston Livestock Show.

They also showed their projects and animals at the Angelina County Livestock Show in March.

1st Drill Team -- The Dazzlers

The Diboll Dazzlers, known as the drill team, was organized for the first time at DHS in August, 1994.

Diboll's school administration wanted to form a drill team and a week before the first football game, Mrs. Janet Brockman was asked to sponsor it.

The Dazzlers started out with 17 girls and ended up with 10. Mrs. Brockman said the attrition was attributed to several causes: they didn't get to go to summer camp and they didn't realize the work was as hard as it turned out to be. Also, many girls were involved in other activities.

The Dazzlers performed at football half-time ceremonies, basketball games and at Angelina College. The Lumberjack Band accompanied the Dazzlers at football games.

The other Dazzler sponsor was Mrs. Lisa Taylor.

Art Club

The Art Club made several architectural drawings of local buildings and created an art show for the community.

The club took trips to museums both locally and in larger cities.

Members also visited artists in the community.

The club sponsored general art workshops to train artist-members in art skills.

The club is sponsored by Mr. Steve Paul.

Business Professionals of America

The Business Professionals of America, sponsored by Mrs. Gracie Buford, held an employee-employer luncheon in the DHS library near the end of the school year.

They also had an office Christmas party in December and the students exchanged gifts.

OFFICERS FOR Business Professionals of America are (clockwise) Daniel Zarzoza, president; Stacy Tobias, secretary; Myriam Plascencia, treasurer; Marisa Gonzalez, parliamentarian; Claudia Roman, parliamentarian 2; Manuela Concha, vice president; Edna Martinez; and Janie Gonzalez, historian.

IN THE play of "The Insanity of Mary Girard," Michelle Cordell shows her emotions while the "Furies" writhe on the floor in their craziness.

This year the Theater Arts Department did a lot of changing.

Beginning this year, the cast brought "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown," and for the first time, they put together a dinner theater show called "The Shame of Tombstone." The play of "The Insanity of Mary Girard."

"The Insanity of Mary Girard" won district championship with 48 points.

Winning honorable mentions were Rob Parr, Erica Salazar, Angie Luce and Mandy Bowman.

Named to the all-star cast were the "Furies," Marilyn Harper, Patti Menz, Steven Burnette, Amanda Ybarra, Kenny Nash, Susan Wilbanks, Tami Beck, Rob Parr, Erica Salazar, Angie Luce and Mandy Bowman.

Best actress and actor were Michelle Cordell for Mary Girard and Josh Everett for Steven Girard.

MICHELLE CORDELL, as Mary Girard, pulls away from Rob Parr, the cruel Warder.

French Club

The French Club sponsored a candy sale and raised $300 for the organization. With the money they earned, they bought French movies so that they could learn the language better.

Next year, the students will be able to view them. The French movies are American movies but they are dubbed in French. Mr. Langevin said he will buy the French movies while he is at home in Canada this summer. He said the movies are less expensive in Canada than they are here in the United States.

With the money they earned, they had planned to eat at a French restaurant and see a play in French at the I-Max Theater.

But instead, the French Club's officers decided to buy the French movies. They said that the movies will be useful to the students.

The French Club sponsor is Mr. Adrien A. Langevin.

Mr. Langevin is one of DHS's new teachers. He was born in Central America but is a citizen of Canada. This is his first year teaching French.

LOOKS LIKE Mr. Langevin is having a good time as he helps the French Club members separate candy for a fund raiser.

The Jazzy Jacks

The Lumberjack Band

During the fall the band was busy performing for the football games, UIL marching contest, Angelina Christmas parade, Red Ribbon Day Parade, Diboll Day Parade, all-region tryouts, a Christmas concert and this year they also performed for U.S. Congressman Charlie Wilson. The band returned from UIL Marching Contest with Division II rating.

This year also saw a new addition to the Diboll Band program with the creation of a stage band, called the "Jazzy Jacks." The band performed at various functions and events around the area.

In the spring the band prepared for all-state tryouts, UIL Solo and Ensemble contest, UIL concert and Sight-reading contest and a spring concert. The band returned from the UIL Concert and Site-Reading contest with a Division II rating in concert and a I in the sight-reading.

The DHS band had 13 members to try out for the All-Region Band and all 13 made it. Two of the members who were selected for All-Region Band advanced to the All-Area level of competition.

This level is one step away from the coveted All-State Band.

The band had 11 members receive Division I ratings on solos at the UIL Solo and Ensemble contest, and four of those advanced to the state contest in late May.

SENIOR BAND members Eltoris Caraway, Stephanie Cavazos, Karen Ivey and Kyle Lewis pose with their parents on Senior Night at the last football game.

The Band Booster Club gave six scholarships, and three members earned Band scholarships from other colleges or universities.

The Band Booster Club also provided a band banquet and a trip to Astroworld and Jones Hall on May 20.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

This school year the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) only consisted of three members.

The organization didn't participated in many activities this year because of the lack of members.

They held a few meetings at Coaches Ricky and Jo Ann Stephens' house. They held a FCA party in the DHS gym.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes president was Kristen Bradford. The vice president was Jackie McGuire and secretary/treasurer was Jennifer Jones.

Mr. Keith Ellison was the only guest speaker FCA had this year. He was a football player at SFASU. -Fred Woods

The Geography Club got off to a slow start this year, but the main focus was to raise money for the club.

Sponsor Frank Lane said that he purchased donuts for the club to sell before school and that is the main way the club members raised money.

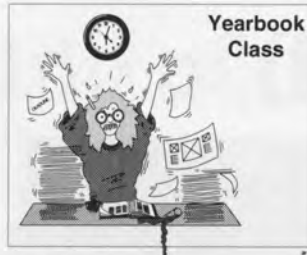

The organization didn't participated in many activities this year because of the lack of interest, Mr. Lane said.

Geography Club officers were Mario Olivares, president; LaToya Stewart, vice president; Melanie Mosley, secretary; Marilyn Harper, treasurer; Kristi Ward, reporter; and Tami Beck, historian.

Representatives were Kasie Conner, Jessica Rayborn, Anita Sarmiento, Tessa Glover, Belinda Alvarez, Amy Kiel and Niya Guillory.

SEVENTH PERIOD yearbook staff members are (front, l-r) Carmen Soto, Alan Tetu and Brandy Frankens; and (top) Curtis Fisher, Stephanie Cavazos and Maggie Sarmiento.

The yearbook staff started their year off working hard, determined to make this annual one of the best ever. First they sold ads to raise enough money to partially pay for the books' printing costs.

Then they got to work. The staff came to yearbook class to work on pages in the computer, making layouts, choosing photos and writing stories, captions and headlines.

Yearbook editors were Stephanie Cavazos and Maggie Sarmiento.

Staff members were Malcolm Starghill, Jelyitsa Perez, LaMartha Kiel, Sports Editor Briza Mancha, Belinda Robles, Manuela Concha, Fred Woods and Kathy Wells.

On the seventh period staff were Curtis Fisher, Organizations Editors Brandy Frankens and Carmen Soto and Honors Editor Alan Tetu. Both editors were in this class.

CARMEN SOTO joins the staff second semester and does a great job collecting information and finishing her pages on time.

MAGGIE SARMIENTO calls a "teacher" during "Teachers' Day Off" to report that there had been too many tardies. Yearbook Class and Student Council sponsored "Teachers Day Off."

CURTIS FISHER, assistant sports editor, comes to school the last day to finish his baseball story in the computer.

THE AX

Throughout the years, THE AX has been a source of pride for DHS students and supporters. That was the goal for this year's newspaper staff. They wanted to keep it alive in '95, and they were successful. Newspaper sponsor, Sue Perkins, said that this was one of the most cohesive staffs she had had in years.

Printing at the FREE PRESS ceased in '94, and the Lufkin Daily News started printing THE AX. Printing costs almost doubled but advertising was strong for the year, and the publication continued to be self-supporting.

Sofia Reyes was editor, Duane Olds was cartoonist, and staff members were Angela Rios, Courtnie Friday, Melanie Mosley, Tiffany White, LaToya Stewart, Danny Kimbrough, Sergio Estrada, Ericka Gonzales, Shellie Ledford, Marcus Coleman, Wendi Harris, LaMartha Kiel, Rosa Olvera and Fedra Salazar.

In the spring, Brandi Clark, Ella Thompson, Josh Webb, Eva Serratos, Donna Brown, Stanley Oliphant and Kyle Lewis joined the staff.

S P O R T S

Set, Bump, Spike

Starting their season in August and ending in November, the Ladyjacks varsity volleyball team showed much improvement this year by being runner-up in district.

The Ladyjacks lost their bi-district game to Coldspring with the scores of 15-11 and 15-3.

There were 14 JV games and 10 Freshman games. Varsity played in one tournament.

Making the girls' all-district volleyball team are Patricia Thomas (#11) was most valuable player, Jodi Jones (#6) made the first all-district team, Veronica R. Salazar (#4) and Dora Enriquez (#1) made district honorable mention.

Head volleyball coach Jo Ann Stephens said, "The volleyball program showed an increase in players. This has enabled the program to grow, and allowed us to have a Freshman team two years in a row now. Having a Freshman team gives the ladies an added year of experience before they are on junior varsity and varsity, and this also helps them to mature." - Briza Mancha

Bi-district Champions

The Diboll Ladyjacks went a step further this year. They won the bi-district game against Coldspring but lost the area game against Waco LaVega.

The Ladyjacks were district champions for the first time in Ladyjack history. This was the second year for the Ladies to go to the playoffs. Their district record was 10-0, winning 15 consecutive games. Their overall record was 27-7 (including scrimmages).

The high scorer for the year was Patricia Thomas with an average of 31-points per game. The two leading rebounders were Chris Mettlen and Kristen Bradford with an average of 10-11 rebounds per game. The guards, Briza Mancha and LaMartha Kiel, averaged four to five assists per game, and Thomas averaged eight assists per game.

"I am very pleased with the way the Ladies accomplished a greater challenge this year. They took their season a step further, showing that they were mentally and physically ready," Coach Jo

Ann Stephens said.

Thomas was chosen the district's MVP and won first-team, all-state honors. Mancha made first team all-district. Bradford and Mettlen were second team all-district and Kiel and Jennifer Jones were named honorable mention. Coach Stephens was chosen as Coach of the Year for District 19-AAA.

Graduating seniors were Donna Brown, Dora Enriquez, Mancha, Mettlen, Veronica R. Salazar, Veronica Salazar and Thomas.

ARCHIE JACKSON (#22) eludes more Kirbyville defenders en route to another touchdown as Joe Stephens (#75) blocks.

ALONZO ALVAREZ (#99) destroys a Newton running back as Alex Forney (#33) comes over to assist.

The Lumberjacks started the season off debuting before the Diboll crowd with a 19-13 win over the Bullard Panthers. It was the first time since 1991 that the Lumberjacks had won their season opener.

The following week they defeated Kirbyville 26-20. The 1994 'Jacks were now 2-0, and in 1993 they only won two games the whole year, and the year before they finished 0-10.

The 2-0 'Jacks got their first loss against a tough Newton team, but bounced back with a late 28-27 victory against Montgomery.

The team would go on to lose the Homecoming game against state ranked Alto, but came back roaring, just waiting for district play to start.

They won the first two games with Corrigan 31-12 and Huntington, 44-20. That brought their record to 5-2 overall and 2-0 in district.

A game that seemed to be going the 'Jacks way against San Augustine ended up being the turning point for the rest of the season. The 'Jacks were up 14-0 but for some reason or another couldn't hold the lead and lost 17-14, marking the downfall of the season. The 'Jacks went on to lose the last two games against Center and Rusk, bringing their season's record to an even 5-5, (2-3) in District 19-AAA..

The season was not all disappointing in that a school record was nearly broken by Senior Archie Jackson as he gained 1,509 yards on 263 carries.

Also, Cornerback Malcolm Starghill signed a $34,000 full scholarship with Texas Southern University in Houston.

Several Lumberjacks were named to the 1994 19-AAA all-district team including linebacker Alex Forney, running back Archie Jackson, running back Corey Horace, linebacker Robert Garcia, cornerback Malcolm Starghill, flanker Mike Suarez, cornerback Jerry King, defensive tackle Trey Grandgeorge, defensive tackle Donovan Shepherd, offensive tackle Joe Stephens, defensive back Joe Garcia and defensive back Travis Jones.

Boys Track Team Ties for Second

MALCOLM STARGHILL seems to be very serious about catching his opponents in the mile relay.

JOSH SHURLEY blows pass the opposition in the 200m dash. Josh accumulated the most points in JV track this year.

The Lumberjack track team tied for second in district and qualified nine men for regionals.

Allen Farley tied the school record of 6'6" in the high jump, winning first. Jerry King was first in the 110m hurdles and second in the 300m hurdles.

Kreston Paige finished second in the 110m hurdles. Malcolm Starghill finished second in the 400m dash and Zicorian Coleman was second in the 200m dash. Also finishing second was Alonzo Alvarez in the 800m run.

The mile relay team of Alvarez, Starghill, Joe Garcia and Zicorian Coleman showed signs of excellence early in the year. The relay won first in almost every meet. They were beaten by Rusk, the defending state champs, at district but came back to beat Rusk twice at the regional meet in Brenham. The 'Jacks set a new school record of 3:23.7 in the preliminaries, but could not duplicate their efforts in the finals, finishing third.

At the regional meet, Alvarez finished sixth in the 800m run and Farley placed sixth in the high jump. Starghill competed in the 400m dash and King ran the 300m hurdles. Jonathan Gann also competed in the pole vault. All of these track team members performed well.

It was a good year for the young track stars and they are looking for an even stronger one next year. The team will graduate four key track team members: Starghill, Farley, Jeremiah Phipps and Trey Grandgeorge. But the underclassmen will try to fill their track shoes.

KRESTON PAIGE maintains his balance when he hits the sand after his triple jump.

ALLEN FARLEY ties the school high jump record of 6' 6" with this jump. Joseph Phipps set the record in 1994.

LUMBERJACKS ALEX Forney, Kreston Paige and Jerry King are feeling great about winning the 'Jacks' track meet.

Ladyjacks Miss District by 9 Points

The Ladyjacks started the year off slowly but began to make progress and never stopped trying. They finished second in district and sent five team members to regional competition at Blinn College.

At the district meet, Ericka Horace and Patricia Thomas brought home the only first place finishes. Horace, a freshman, was first in the 100m dash and Thomas, a senior, was first in the discus.

Thomas was also second in the 100m hurdles and Ebony Hubbard was second in the 3200m run. The 800m relay team, made up of Horace, Hubbard, Kristen Bradford, and Andrea Reyes, finished second. Also placing second was mile relay team of Horace, Bradford, Reyes and Hubbard.

Other Ladyjacks finishing in the top three at the meet were Veronica R. Salazar placing third in the 300m hurdles and LaKeisha Lee in the 1600m run.

Overall, the Ladyjacks had a great year in their competitions against the other schools in District 19-AAA. They only missed winning district by nine points.

Generally, they were a young team and have great wins to look forward to in the future.

A Power Trip

VOLUNTEERS COME to help run the powerlifting meet at Junior High.

ROB PARR always makes good lifts.

Senior Archie Jackson finished with a sixth place in his weight class at the state meet at Texas A&M.

He ended up squatting 500 pounds, bench pressing 245 pounds and deadlifting 480 pounds which totals 1,225 pounds.

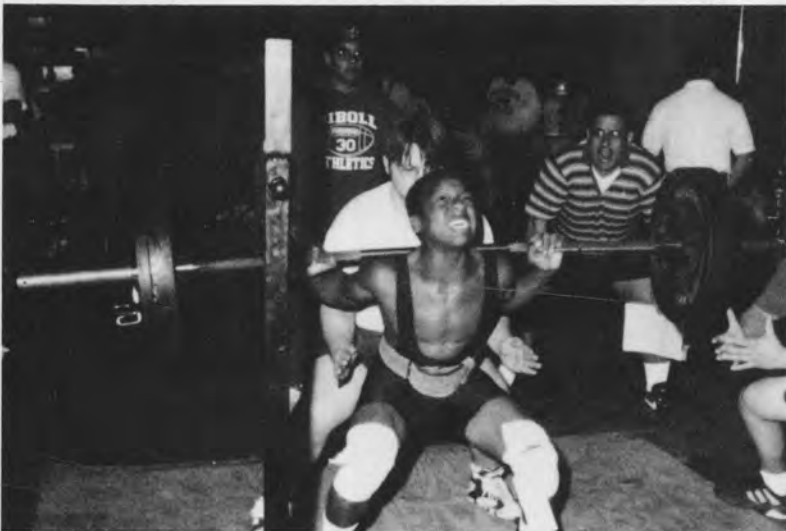

Archie finished second in his weight class (181 pounds or less) at the regional meet in Corsicana, and was the only lifter from Diboll to make it to state competition.

Rodrick McDaniel, Sergio Estrada and Clyde Jackson also lifted at the regional competition and had a chance of making it to the state meet.

FRESHMAN CHARITY Rast returns the ball to a formidable opponent, JuaQuin Gonzalez. Tennis coach, Jo Ann Stephens, says she should have a good, strong team next year.

JuaQuin Gonzalez won second in District 19-AAA play in boys' tennis singles but lost his first match in regional play against the boys' first seed from Kountze. JuaQuin couldn't advance.

The girls' tennis team all lost in the first round of district play at Rusk High School on April 12 and 13.

Olga Martinez and Patricia Enriquez made up the girls' doubles team while Misty Jones and Chasity Minyard made up the freshman girls' doubles team.

Johnson.

The new girls' softball team, made up primarily of freshmen, sophomores and a few upper-classmen, had a grand slam start this year.

Every game was an improvement for each player, according to Coach T.J. Johnson.

The Ladyjacks struggled and finished district play in third place.

After battling it out with Central, Huntington, Hudson, Chester, Wells and Corrigan, the team's district record was 7-5. The overall record was 9-6.

Hudson finished first while Central ended up in second place.

As for the JV team, their record in district stood at 6-2. Their only two losses were against Central so they finished second.

Varsity Ladyjacks who made all-district teams were Melanie Ward, first team outfielder; Jodi Jones, second team catcher; Angela Rios, second team pitcher; Jessica Rayborn, second team third base; Jennifer Jones, second team outfielder; and Hollie Lyles, second team designated hitter. Ashley Lenderman and Jeni Lightfoot made honorable mention and Amy Kiel got district freshman of the year. - By Angela Rios

WILLIE VASQUEZ tries to tag the runner as he slides head first into second base.

VOTED MOST Valuable Player of the year on the baseball team is Robert Garcia.

MIKE SUAREZ bunts the ball so he can fly down the first base line.

The 1995 Lumberjack varsity baseball team met their nemesis when they played the Crockett Bulldogs in their second playoff game at Nacogdoches High School. The score was 7-0.

The first playoff game was May 16 in Humble when the 'Jacks played havoc with a good Montgomery High School team. The final score was 10-5.

The 'Jacks record this year is 17-7 in District 19-3A. Central won first place in this district, going undefeated in district play.

This year's other 19-3A teams were a little different than usual because of their players' slower speeds.

But the 'Jacks could easily bunt the ball more and get on base because the team had exceptional speed.

The 'Jacks strong points were team speed and defense. Their weak point, according to Head Coach Jeff Stifle, was "lack of concentration."

Senior Allen Farley, one of the 'Jacks leading pitchers, won seven and lost three, and had a 2.35 earned run average.

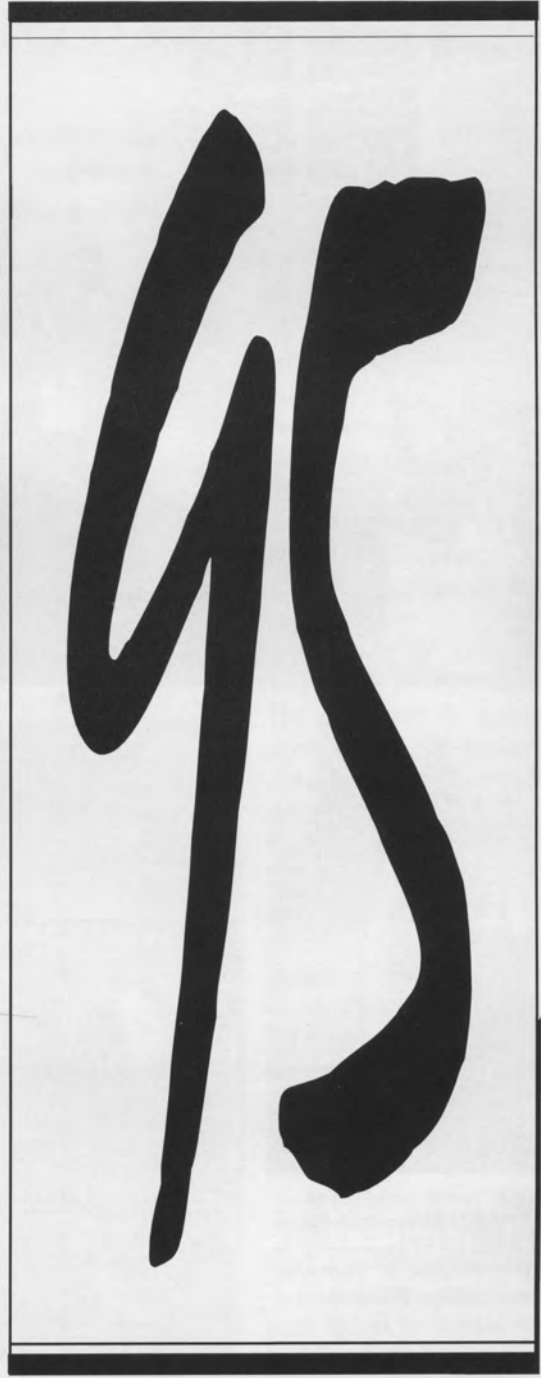

Sophomore Pitcher Francisco Morado, who was 9-2 with a 3.04 ERA, relieved Farley on the mound, and their good pitching pulled the 'Jacks out of some marginal games.

Senior Robert Garcia had the best batting percentage with .330 for the season, and he also led in the RBI department.

Another graduating senior, Mike Suarez, was also a great part of the winning team. He had the most stolen bases, 16. Suarez's great speed helped out in this department.

Diboll Dominates UIL Takes the Trophy Three Years Straight

It seems to be an ongoing Diboll tradition to win the district trophy in UIL. For the third consecutive year Diboll has beaten the competition, this year by a dominating 128 points. This year's academic squad scored a massive 429 points, followed closest by Center with 301 points. Of the 24 students who placed in events, Diboll brought home 20 first place medals.

Diboll had 20 students that qualified to compete in the UIL regional meet. Of those competing at regionals, Patrick Kilgore, Trey Wilkerson and Jeremiah Phipps qualified to advance to the state competition in early May.

Trey went on to win first place in the state in persuasive speaking, and Patrick won second in the state in science as well as first in the sub-category of physics.

SHARON VANOVER (left) and Finis Vanover (right) get the Jackbackers' Spirit Award from Mrs. Jeannie McGaughey for working to raise $579,000 for the new football stadium's construction.

ARCHIE JACKSON gets an award for powerlifting, Jennifer Jones, Steven Paul, Kari Musick for golf and Sergio Estrado for powerlifting.

LAKESHIA LEE, Jodi Jones, Maria Perez and Patricia Thomas receive awards as outstanding athletes this year. Not pictured is Amy Kiel.

Vanover announces $579,000 for stadium

PATRICIA THOMAS and Jerry King are honored as Athletes of the Year. Thomas participated in basketball, volleyball, golf and track. King was active in football, basketball and track.

MALCOLM STARGHILL is a regional qualifier in track, Josh Shirley is high point boy in JV track, Alonzo Alvarez is regional qualifier in track and Robert Garcia is MVP for baseball.

KRISTEN BRADFORD is the outstanding junior in basketball; Jodi Jones is co-MVP in softball; and Patricia Thomas is outstanding senior.

GRACIELA REYES is chosen to receive the Woodman of the World award for excellence in American history.

DHS SENIOR Trey Wilkerson is honored as high point individual in UIL for the fourth consecutive year.

MRS. GENEVA Ard, mother of DHS sophomore Allison Ard, receives the honor of Parent of the Year at DHS's annual Renaissance Banquet.

JACKIE McGUIRE, Kenith Goins, Eltoris Caraway, Benji Bowman, Angie Luce, Steven Burnette, Graciela Reyes, Jose Sandoval, Omar Palomino and Tami Beck receive subject awards for outstanding performance in their fine arts classes.

SUBJECT AWARD recipients are (front, l-r) Travis Jones, Jason Bearden, Stacy Tobias, Chasity Smith and Maria Salazar; (back) Justin Jackson, Gerald Cayton, Amanda Hance, Misti Seymore, Brandy Frankens and Ella Thompson.

GLORIA MOLINA, Ashley McGaughey, Misty Jones, Kari Musick, Tiffany White and Darrell Thornhill receive subject awards for foreign languages.

MATH WINNERS are Brandi Clark, Willie Vasquez, Carrie Grove, Ricky Parfait, Guadalupe Alvarez, Sonja Vidovic and Shante Keith.

Academic Excellence

TREY WILKERSON, Sara Payovich, Jeremiah Phipps and Monica Reyes receive awards for social studies.

Students Win Academic Recognition

Eighty-eight DHS students won academic awards and certificates at the annual Renaissance Banquet on May 8. Awards were handed out for excellence in class work and individual excellence.

SENIOR STEPHANIE Cavazos is presented the Lufkin Kiwanis Club's scholarship by Mr. Lynn Montes.

The Academic Excellence award was given to Trey Wilkerson.

Trey won the UIL award for the year, too, and he announced a $150 annual scholarship will be given to any DHS senior who is high point UIL person for the year.

KRISTA WILKERSON, Tanya Rodriguez, Patricia Menz, Tessa Glover, Casie Parish and Patrick Kilgore are recognized for outstanding academics in science.

Mrs. Geneva Ard won Parent of the Year honors.

DHS SENIOR Trey Wilkerson is given the Renaissance Eagle Award for his outstanding achievements in academics. Josten's Eagle Award is the highest award that is presented at the Academic Banquet.

Stephanie Cavazos won the Lufkin Kiwanis Club's scholarship, and Juakin Gonzalez was named Diboll Rotary Club's Student of the Year.

KATHERINA LOFTIN, Jennifer Webb, Melissa Hernandez, Patricia Dowdy and Melanie Ward are rewarded for their achievements in various subjects.

Graciela Reyes won the Woodman of the Year award for American history. -By Danny Kimbrough

JELYITSA PEREZ and Stephanie Cavazos stand in front of the unique background chosen for the '95 prom.

BUBBA LOFTIN dances the jitterbug (or something) with Kristen Bradford.

HERE IS a group to look at. They smile so big for the camera.

LOOK AT this group of cowboys doing the Texas two-step on the dance floor.

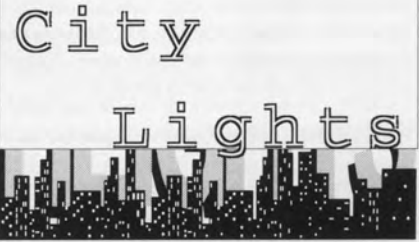

HOLLY LYLES relaxes on her date's shoulder as they wait for the next dance.

ALLISON ARD is all bright eyed, sparkly and cheerful in her pretty green dress.

Junior - Senior Celebration

DON'T ANGELA Rios and Eric Crager look mighty spiffy in their elegant prom wardrobe.

MRS. LISA Jones helps Stacy Tobias put on her wrist corsage while her date waits for his first dance.

LOOK AT Wendy Fanning, Kenny Nash and Courtnie Friday. They are having a hilarious time on the dance floor.

THIS GROUP of partiers get together and get down before the last few songs of the night are over.

Congratulations

GRADUATES

GRADUATING SENIOR David Smiley seems calm and docile as he and his classmates wait for their chance to walk across the stage to get their diplomas.

COUNSELOR MARY Ingram says to Clarence Owens that she is glad that he is here tonight for graduation.

SENIOR CLASS President Patrick Kilgore and Tamia Joshua wear yellow roses in honor of Michelle Lawrence who would have graduated with the Class of '95 but was the victim of an automobile accident in Diboll last fall.

Class of '95 graduates 111

The 111 graduating seniors of Diboll High School's Class of '95 held its graduation ceremony on May 26 at 8 p.m. in the United Pentecostal Church Campground auditorium. The ceremony was open to relatives and friends of each graduating senior.

Seventy-seven scholarships totaling about $230,000 were awarded to 34 graduating seniors. Lanton Chumley and Veronica Sarmiento received the $8,000 Stubblefield Scholarships.

The evening's speaker was Mr. Bobby Baker. Mr. Baker was a 1965 graduate of Diboll High School, and was principal at DHS for four years. Before that, he was Diboll's athletic director and head football coach for eight years. Mr. Baker is now superintendent at Central Independent School District.

PRINCIPAL RICK Cowan addresses the Class of 1995 for the last time as he sincerely says, "Proceed cautiously" into the Real World-go for it but be careful.

DAIS DIGNITARIES and speakers for the evening are (l-r) DISD Interim Superintendent Vernon Paul, Central Superintendent Bobby Baker, DHS Principal Rick Cowan, and Board members Bill Sloan, Joe Henry Smith, Rev. Roy Smith, John Ralph Pouland and Jack Jenkins.

INDIVIDUALISM IS the hallmark of the Class of 1995. Every Senior in this photo is doing something different, even as they formally stand to accept their diplomas.

FORMER DHS Principal Bobby Baker challenges the Class of 1995 to learn to fly in a V - like the geese do, so they can hold each other up and encourage one another to go on regardless of how tired they are.

PRINCIPAL RICK Cowan (center) congratulates Trey Wilkerson (left) and Patrick Kilgore for being the valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively, of the Class of 1995.

VALEDICTORIAN TREY Wilkerson is having a serious, reflective moment as he thinks about his future at Texas A&M.

KAREN IVY says good-bye to her principal, Rick Cowan, who is leaving DHS to become a superintendent.

1995 Graduation Party

TIME IS TICKING AWAY

THE GRADUATION party finally gets rolling soon after 11, but once it got started, it really rocked and everyone who attended had a good time.

ELTORIS CARAWAY and Carlos Robledo lead the pack in the "Prize Walk." They played music and the student walked around the circle and stepped on numbers in time to the music. Whatever number the graduate was on when the music stopped was important because if they called that number, then you got a nice prize.

NEW DHS graduates are (l-r) Veronica Sarmiento, Edna Martinez, Myriam Plascencia and Dora Enriquez.

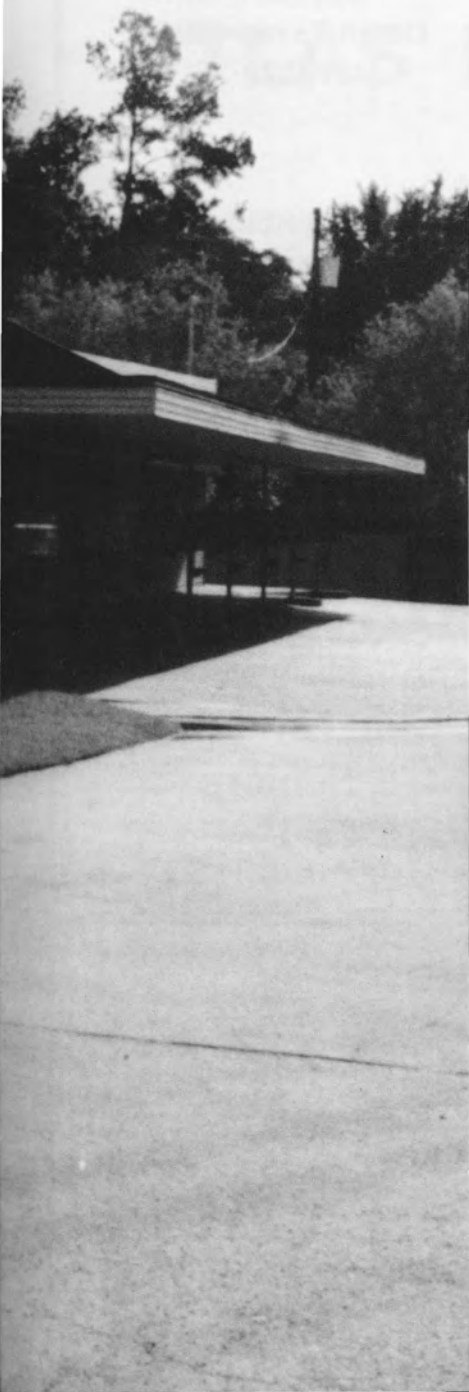

CORY CRAGER (standing left) looks like he is enjoying watching the casino action of Tyrone Taylor, Stanley Oliphant, JuaQuin Gonzalez, Latavian Forney, Troy Dixon, Fred Woods and David Smiley. Stay around Cory, and you may learn something.

THE FIRST thing that you are supposed to do when you graduate is EAT, and eat Jackie McGuire did! Looks like Carrie Grove is helping her, too.

Hats Off to the Class of '95

You've earned your diploma, and that's an accomplishment to be proud of. It's a great feeling to finish something you started long ago—especially when you consider how much there is to look forward to. Your only limit is your imagination. In honor of your graduation, we salute all the members of the Class of '95.

WE'RE INVESTING HEAVILY IN NEW PLANTS RIGHT HERE IN EAST TEXAS.

The world is changing. Barriers that once stood in the path of a global economy are crumbling. New markets and new opportunities are opening up all over the world. In addition to our domestic markets, Temple-Inland intends to capitalize on this increasing world demand for top-quality wood and paper products. Products that can help improve the quality of life from Latin America to the Pacific Rim, just as they have here at home.

During our 100 year partnership with East Texas, we have enjoyed steady growth by efficiently manufacturing useful products from an abundant, renewable resource. Dimension lumber, fiberboard sheathing, hardboard siding and particleboard are important parts of our product line. But we're constantly developing new products that maximize usage of our precious fiber. Engineered lumber, medium-density fiberboard and a new, lightweight bleached paperboard are among the products that allow us to utilize 98% of every log.

Our commitment to the environment begins in the forest and continues through the manufacturing process. Waste that cannot be recycled into products is used to produce energy for manufacturing. And for each tree harvested, 6 new seedlings are replanted.

Temple-Inland recognizes the importance of world markets. But with expanded manufacturing facilities and 1.2 million acres of forests in East Texas, we'll continue to grow the economy right here at home.

Just like we always have.

TEMPLE-INLAND
FOREST PRODUCTS CORPORATION

We want to be a good neighbor.

Dedicated to JOSE SARMIENTO JR.

Jose Sarmiento Jr. was born September 27, 1977 and died at Memorial Medical Center of East Texas in Lufkin on February 18, 1995. Funeral services were held February 21 at Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church with interment at Garden of Memories in Lufkin.

Jose was a sophomore student at DHS where he was in honors classes. His real first love was playing baseball, however, and he also loved football, basketball and track. A member of Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church in Diboll, Jose had lived in Diboll all of his life.

His parents were Jose Sr. and Domitila Sarmiento, and three sisters, Concepcion and Veronica Sarmiento and Letisia Solis.

The 1995 LUMBERJACK is dedicated to the spirit and memory of Jose.
