DHS Siblings

Have you ever noticed the massive amount of siblings DHS holds? Brothers and sisters to twin sisters to some siblings that refuse to admit their related, DHS carries them all. And here are some.....

Scarlett and Seth Hankla

Scarlett is a senior and Seth is a sophomore and they are one of many active siblings at DHS. They are involved in various sports: softball, basketball, football, and powerlifting. Their personalities differ, but their love for each other is unimaginable.

Erica & Arturo Meza

Ashley & Amber Bearden

Chris, Catina, and Steven Lewis

Seniors Chris and Catina and sophomore Steven Lewis are well-known at DHS. Chris was voted Mr. DHS, Catina is a varsity letterman in track, volleyball, and basketball, and Steven is one of the talented running backs for the varsity football team. If it was your first glance at these three, you could easily decipher their connection as siblings.

Cary & Brittany Duke

Dylan and Zach Oliver

Dylan, a senior, and Zach, a sophomore, are the "athletic" siblings at DHS. Teammates on the field, both playing varsity football, and brothers at home, Dylan and Zach are extremely competitive. They are quiet when it comes to talking, but their presence on the field makes them unstoppable.

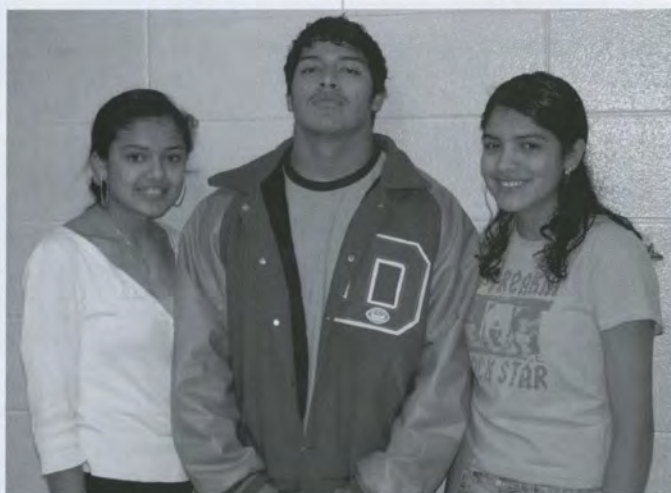

Javin, Kaleena, & Brett Oberlechner

Robin & J.R. Robinson

Andrea & David Ochoa

Alex, Jose, and Damaris Carrillo

Here are the three amigos at DHS. Sophomore Alex, senior Jose, and freshman Damaris Carrillo are all active siblings at the school. They are all involved in sports and academic organizations. If you happen to see them walking down the hall, you might be blown away by their unique sense of style.

Heather & Ryan Hatthorn

"Shattered Dreams 2004"

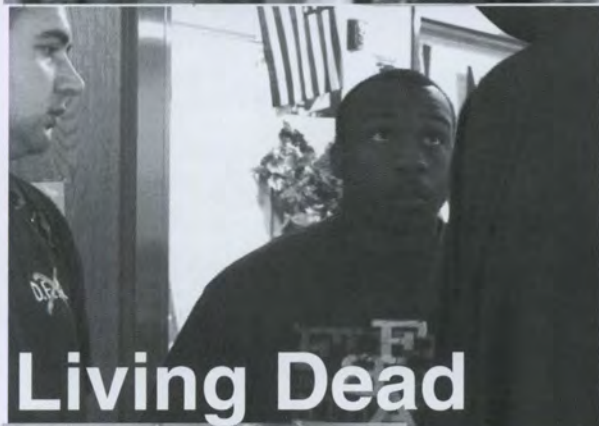

The emotions that filled the air, the shock that hit some, and the power that was caused by this one dramatic experience has made an impact. Shattered Dreams 2004 was an event that struck DHS.

Dreams can be shattered in an instant if we allow them to, but "Shattered Dreams 2004" hopefully will open the eyes of some and prevent "drinking and driving." Remember—The Choice is Yours—so Make it Count.

Florian Rybak came to our school in August of 2003. He left a loving family behind consisting of his parents Klaus and Beate, and his brothers and sisters Sina, Antje, Jens and Klaus. His cat, Lea, and dog, Jersy, stayed behind to care for and watch over a very, very important guinea pig, Bobby. Bobby would have come, but he's just a little bit scared of planes.

He was originally going to Kansas City to play basketball, but they wanted him for two years. If he didn't have a guaranteed athletic scholarship, then he couldn't go because he couldn't finish school in Germany. He wants to go to a big college if he's lucky enough to get an American scholarship.

When he found out that he'd gotten a family and a school, he was so excited!!! But one question still lingered in his mind after all the excitement had died down. "Where the heck is Diboll, Texas?"

His favorite classes are athletics and Pre-Cal. Sports is his life, and he loves math. His favorite teachers are Mrs. Cordell, Mrs. Capps, Mr. Paul, and Coach Johnson.

His favorite foods are pizza, spaghetti bologna, and tortillas. His favorite color is blue, just like his eyes!!

And don't forget Bobby!

One Act Play

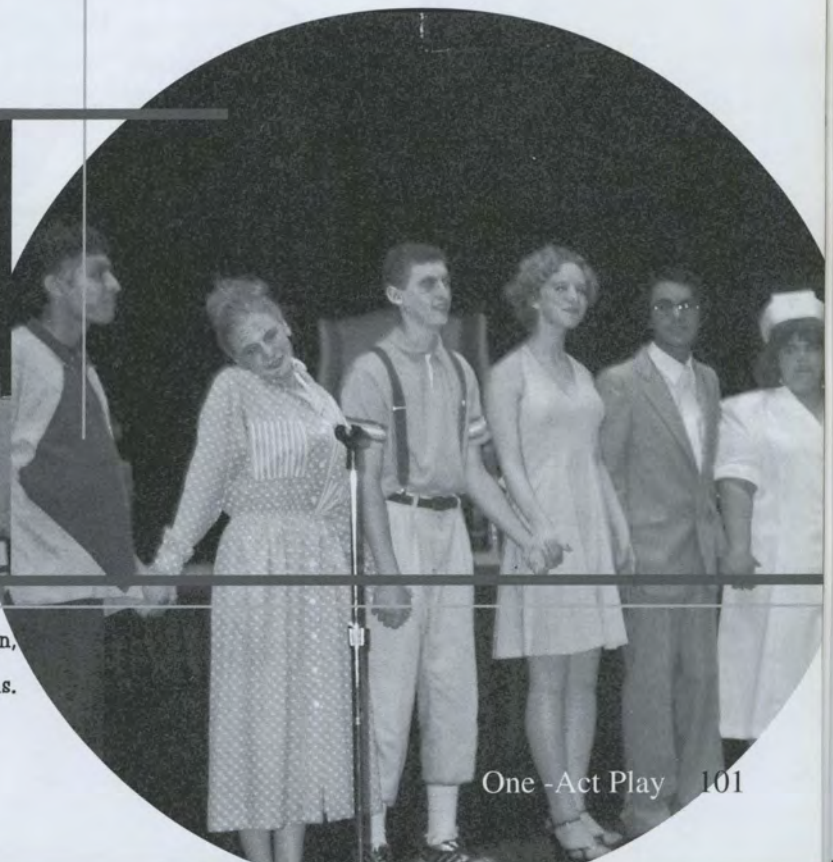

Jesus Gonzales and Harry Taylor give special presentations of their critically acclaimed skit "Ruby and Lopez." In the words of a wise man, "It's like buttah."

The One-Act Play Cast and Crew performed "Louder, I Can't Hear You!" by William Gleason for One-Act Play Contest this year. In competition they advanced to district and finished the year as area alternates. The cast consisted of Traci Laco, Jesus Gonzalez, Samantha Yarbrough, Jacob Johnson, Jose Lopez, and Courtney Williams. Extras for the play were Veronica Ivey and Angie Abbott. The crew was Thomas Harviel, Mason Pitts, Stephanie Abbott, and Harry Taylor as the Stage Manager.

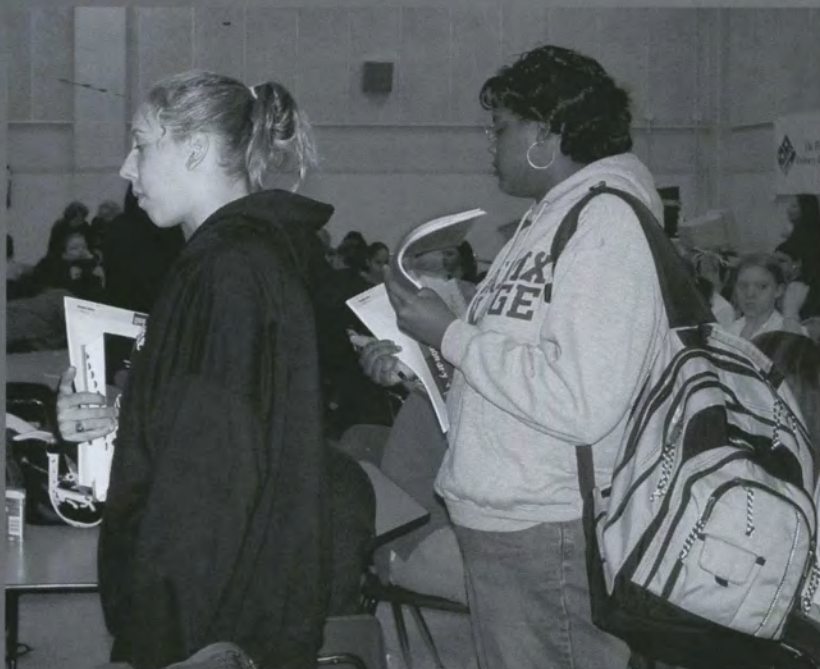

The cast received many awards at the District Contest including All-Star Cast Traci and Jesus. Courtney and Jacob received Honorable Mention.

Temple has produced quality for more than 100 years

Temple enjoys a long-standing reputation as an industry leader in the building materials industry.

Since our beginning as a single sawmill, we have grown into a company well-positioned with a combination of broad product diversity, efficient plants and key geographic locations.

Temple is part of Temple-Inland Inc., a holding company with interests in paper and financial services as well as building materials.

Temple and the company's forest operations use their combined size, expertise and resources to develop the advanced products and forest management practices our customers will require for the next 100 years.

2004 Yearbook Staff

We have gained much from this experience as the Lumberjack staff of 2004. The creativity and imagination we have created throughout the year has been worth every minute. The theme "You know you're from Diboll if..." was inspired by the uniqueness our school presents---the diversity and belief in dreams is what Diboll High is acknowledged for.

--Allison McClain, editor

"I realized that a lot of people think the grass is greener on the other side...I used my imagination...to make the grass whatever color I wanted it to be."
