dIboll. One Word. That's all you need. dIversity is seen throughout this town and school like colors in the rainbow. dIverse, the theme of this book, pretty good huh? Seeing how it's a dI word. (hint hint dIboll) dIboll is dIversel We have all kinds roaming the halls of D+5. From big to small, tall to short, boots to Lebrons, cowboy hats to "flat" bills, and George Strait to Lil Wayne. It's why some people love it here and some people are just ready to get away. The ones that love it just wanna stay in this little town of 5,000 people. And others just wanna fly, you know, see how far their wings will carry them. But, even though everyone is dIfferent, D+5 is the one common interest!

dIverse.....one word....

dIsciple

student life

dIsciple. dI word. The theme of this book.
Student Life. The theme of this section. So, why dIsciple? Well, student life here at dIboll tigh is very dIverse. From pep-rallies and Meet the Tacks to See You at the Pole and Life Skills.
There are plenty of ways to express how the life of a DfS student lives, but the one dI word we came up with is (drum roll please)

dIsciple...

dIsciple, pretty much means to follow. Well, here at dIboll tigh, most kids are following. If they are freshman they are following the seniors, if they are seniors they are following the graduates, or it could be as simple as the crowd following the cheerleaders at a pep-rally! It's kind of a cycle, when the ones who are following (freshman), grow up, graduate, and start leading.

MEET THE JACKS

Scanned from an original at The History Center, Daboll, Texas. www.TheHistoryCenterOnline.com

JV Cheerleaders cheer for Meet the Jacks.

The Dazzlers show out for the crowd.

D. James, A. Wilson, V. Salaiz, & J. Cook wait for the Varsity Cheerleaders to perform.

Twirlers H. Cole, C. Courtney & A. Martin listen carefully for their cue.

Meet the Jacks is more than a tradition. It is the one event that jump-starts the upcoming school year. It allows the entire community to come together for a big pep-rally and meet all of the football players, band members, cross-country runners, dazzlers, volleyball players, cheerleaders and coaches.

H. Odneal and E. Sosa discuss the upcoming song.

Freshman and their parents listen to Mr. Ruby share DHS expectations of students.

C. Simmons, T. Bray, Z. Coleman & J. Lowe are introduced to the freshman faculty.

Remember Fish Camp??
That fun-filled day when all the freshman come in a few days before school begins. That day, when the freshman get a feel for the high school campus and teachers. That day, that starts every DHS student's high school career!

FISH CAMP

A. Hernandez, P. Morgan, K. Hannah, and M. Wagner look on as they learn more about the library.

Z. Coleman & J. Lowe listen carefully to their group leader while visiting the library.

See You At The Pole

Senior K. Martel reading scripture.

"GO, INQUIRE OF THE LORD FOR ME AND THE PEOPLE AND ALL JUDAH CONCERNING THE WORDS OF THIS GREAT BOOK THAT HAS BEEN FOUND, FOR GREAT IS THE WRATH OF THE LORD THAT BURNS AGAINST US, BECAUSE OUR FATHERS HAVE NOT LISTENED TO THE WORDS OF THIS BOOK, TO DO ACCORDING TO ALL THAT IS WRITTEN CONCERNING US." 2 KINGS 22:13

Students gather around the flag pole to worship.

SEE YOU AT THE POLE IS A STUDENT LED EVENT THAT IS PLANNED BY STUDENTS, FOR STUDENTS IN THE COMMUNITY. STUDENTS GATHER AROUND THE FLAG POLE IN THE MORNING AND HAVE A TIME OF PRAYER, SCRIPTURE READING, AND WORSHIP.

We are pressed on every side by troubles, but we are not crushed. We are perplexed, but not driven to despair. We are hunted down, but never abandoned by God. We get knocked down, but we are not destroyed. Through suffering, our bodies continue to share in the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be seen in our bodies. Yes, we live under constant danger of death because we serve Jesus, so that the life of Jesus will be evident in our dying bodies. So we live in the face of danger, but this has resulted in eternal life for you. 2 Corinthians 4:7-12

WORSHIP PRAYER

Seniors share their musical talent while leading worship.

YOUR LOVE IS

YOUR FRIENDSHIP, IT IS INTIMATE,
I FEEL LIKE MOVING TO THE RHYTHM OF YOUR GRACE, YOUR FRAGRANCE IS

See You At The Pole is about praying for the school, the staff, and the students.

L. Jordan enjoys Red Ribbon Week

The Life Skills class is comprised of both middle school & high school students. This class works on traditional subjects as well as life skills, such as, cleaning, folding, cooking, etc... Vocational skills are also important. One of the big projects this year was designing and making spirit buttons. These buttons were sold throughout the district. The class also assists in cleaning the cafeteria every morning after breakfast.

dIstinct people. That's dIboll high to the tee. The people here are dIstinct in so many dIfferent ways. dIstinct, funny word for people? I think not! With our '09-"10 book being dIverse, what better way to describe the people than calling them dIstinct. Each person here at dIboll high has there own niche, there own quality, there own purpose.

dIstinct, separate and individual.

By looking in this section of the book, I believe you will see that just about each person has their own individuality. To roam the halls here, you cannot be without an identity. Because in such a small school, people know who you are and what you represent. That is how friends are made! You must be your own person!

dIligent

academics

The academics here at dIboll High are held to a very high standard. The effort put in by both the student body and the teachers is quite remarkable. Effort, another word for effort, dIligent. What do you know? It's a dI word! So, I guess you could say, the dIligence here at dIboll High is awesome. We, the teachers and students, work very hard on preparation and studying.

So, our school is dIverse, and our academics are dIligent!

The "effort" being put in by the student body and teachers can only result in a positive outcome.

dIligent.....dIverse.....dIboll.....

Speech and Debate

On the Debate and Speech team, we strive to make the world better by arguing and discussing many of the current situations, such as, legislation, environment, society, rights, and justice, just to name a few. "Although people think that it's strictly business, which is the way its supposed to be, we still know how to lay back and have some fun." -A. Santana. There are different forms of Speech and Debate. For debate there is CX which stands for Cross-Examination, and LD which stands for Lincoln Douglas. Speech competition is divided into two events, Extemporaneous, and Student Congress. Most people who have any knowledge of the "debate world" would say that CX is the most challenging. In CX you are given a topic or resolution. You and a partner are to find positive and negative evidence on that specific resolution. Evidence is anything that would have to deal with just a small portion of the resolution. It comes down to the definition of the words and grammar in the resolution, which is part of your affirmative speeches. You have an affirmative and a negative. Affirmative means you're for the resolution and negative means you're against the resolution. On the negative side, you must have as much negative evidence in order to counter you anything the affirmative throws out. CX is really a battle of evidence. The next form of debate is LD. LD is similar to CX, but instead of it being all just evidence, LD is all about philosophy and logic. Like in CX you have an affirmative and a negative. With LD you are always trying to achieve a goal which is the resolution. "[in LD] you are constantly arguing that your theory is better than your opponent's. LD is a debate in which you argue your value superiority." - H. Odneal, Captain

Shoes Along the Highway

Written by

Maureen Brady Johnson

Published by Baker's Plays

This play is about human loss, vulnerability, faith, courage, growth and an awakening. During a trip from California to Ohio, Jeremy begins a journey in which he challenges the world to ask, "How does one shoe end up on the highway?" Through his photography, Jeremy attempts to draw attention to the stories behind the shoes. He wants to use his art to make people think. But when he lets his work "speak for itself" and one of the shoe's story is discovered, Jeremy is not prepared for the answer that brings him face to face with reality.

organizations

dIfferent. Now that is an awesome "dI" word to describe the organizations of dIboll tigh.

Each organization is dIfferent or dIversel tigh, that's the theme of the book! So, why is each organization or club dIfferent at diboll tigh? Because each of the clubs represent something "dIfferent" than the other clubs.

Like, for example, SMASt Club, tries to encourage students to not do drugs, and Spanish Club, represents the Spanish heritage throughout the student body.

dIfferent.....

There are plenty of organizations here at DtS and they all have dIfferent purposes, goals, and activities. But, there is one thing they each have in common and that is to help the students of dIboll tigh!

Through Leadership Tomorrow, eleventh grade students Tiffany Mott and Esteban Solis have the chance to build their leadership skills through a series of challenges. Also throughout the school year they have the chance to go to different companies within the Lufkin area. Esteban explained that while visiting the Lockheed Martin company that "they showed me the many different career options within their company that they offered, that I never would have thought of." In addition to touring different companies, the students involved within Leadership Tomorrow have to participate in the Angelina College ropes course. This challenge put their leadership skills and teamwork abilities to the test as they have to navigate it.

sports

dIscipline. Great "dI" word to describe the sports here at dIboll High. The one thing that we have always had here at DHS is dIscipline.

We might not always have the best athletic teams or players, but we always show class.

dIscipline is shown when you are getting demolished, but you aren't doing anything obscene to the other team. All of the coaches strive on teaching dIscipline, to not only the athletes, but every student here at dIboll High.

dIscipline....

The athletes show dIscipline on and off the field. The football team showing up in the heat of August for two-a-days, the cross country team waking up every morning during season at 6:00 a.m., the basketball teams running sprints to stay in shape, or the golf team practicing everyday after school until dark.

Hey...dIverse, that one word that pretty much sums up the year at dIboll High School. From the up-rage of Facebook and Myspace to Hollister and Sperry's. This school has seen plenty of change during this 2007-2010 school year. I know for the seniors, these last four years have been a blast... and now they're over. But one thing I know I've learned here at dIboll High, and many others have too, is that even after high school, you have to maintain dIversity. It's what makes you, YOU! Don't ever forget that! Now go let your wings fly, but don't forget the place that helped you become your dIverse self-- dIboll High School.

To the Editors,

Wow, it's been a long year! From "receiving" the "Sketch Book" to it coming up missing, twice! This year has been a blast, we've had some easy times and some stressful times. We almost lost Fannon, a bunch of times! But she trusted us and I believe we came through in the clutch. All-in-all, this book is great and all of us should be proud of it!

Your Editor,
Wesley McClain

Wesley Bates - Photoshop Editor

Martin Salas - Ad Editor

Sammy Galvan - Yearbook Sales Editor

Editors,
What an amazing book you have created! Thank you for ALL the time you shared just to be "diverse". Wesley, your competitive spirit drove ad sales beyond $7000. Martin, your attention to detail for all 95 ads was amazing. Wes, your Photoshop skills were a true blessing. Colin, you & your captions kept us laughing. Sammy, you worked so hard to keep yearbook sales updated. Callie, your organizational skills kept us all on task. You are all precious & greatly appreciated. Seniors, you will be truly missed. I wish you the best.

Kara Fannon - Advisor

Always,
K. Fannon

(Colin, I know you took the "Sketch Book" & hid it.)
