Make Your Mark

A childhood memory is a precious gift. We have had class mates come and go for 13 years, but the memories will never fade. By far the hardest thing that all seniors will have to do eventually will be saying goodbye to all the memories and experiences. The hardest part about growing up is letting go of what you're used to and moving on with something you're not. As we have prepared for our future, teachers have taught us and built us up into the strong women and men we have become. Although we might not be fully prepared for what comes our way in our adult life, we sure have been raised to our full potential. After graduation we should have this thought set in our mind: do not make your goal to be the best. Best is a label. It's something someone else decides for you. To become better is more personal; it's to make your mark!

Black and Bling Fairytale Prom

Congratulations

Class of 2018

Alexis

We love you more than anything in this world. You have made us so proud of the young lady you have become. We cannot wait to see what lies ahead of you as you enter into a new chapter of your life. Remember we will be here and will love you always!!

Love
Mom,
Dad,
and Zach

Jeremiah 29:11 For I know the plans I have for you
" declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

Lucio 2018

Lucio,

Watching you grow
has been one of the greatest gifts a parent could ask for.
As you move on to the next chapter
in your life
always remember to pray for direction,
to smile through obstacles,
to keep your head high
even when you fail, to rise up
each and every time,
be grateful for every blessing,
to always choose to be happy
and be brave enough to take on the impossible.

Stay true to your values
and remain the caring respectful young man you have always been.
You have become a man that shows us
every day, in every way,
that you are a kind, thoughtful, loving
and an amazing person.
You have inspired, led by example
and brought so much joy to us and the people around you.

We love you my son more than you can imagine.
You are your mother's baby, your daddy's best friend and your sister's first love.

We love you always, Mom, Dad, Celeste
Mima and Guelo Blue

Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage;
be not frightened, neither be dismayed;
for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go.

Joshua 1:9

Ashley Lizette Perez,

We are beyond proud of you for the woman you've become.

You've found your voice and chose a path that honors who you are.

We wish you the best of luck on your new journey.

You've worked so hard, so never stop reaching for those impossible dreams.

Always believe in yourself. And remember in your plans, we are all behind you.

And you're always in God's hands.

"For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord.

Plans to prosper you and not to harm you.

Plans to give you hope and a future."

-Jeremiah 29:11

Congratulations

KAILYN BROUSSARD!

We're so proud of you on your graduation day and every day.

Love Mom and Dad
Bernadette and Sharlon Canada

There is so much to say about this young, intelligent, respectful and beautiful young lady! Kailyn relocated from Grand Prairie and her very first year here in Diboll ISD she received the Principal's Award and was also a Varsity Cheerleader in high school! She started the early college program in the 7th grade. She has overcome a lot and maintained a good head on her shoulders.

I am very proud to say that she is our daughter and will be graduating this year at the age of 16 with 27 college hours. She has been accepted to Sam Houston State University. May God continue to bless you in your future endeavors!

NEWS & TRENDS

1 Texting fines

A woman texts while crossing the street, an act that will now earn a fine in Honolulu after it became the first major U.S. city to fine pedestrians for texting while crossing the street. The fines ranged from $35-$99.

2 Pass the avocados

Enjoying avocado on toast continues to be a growing food trend and was joined by the avolatte – coffee served inside an avocado. Putting more fun in food, unicorn lattes and ice cream appeared, along with donuts decorated with crushed children's cereal.

3 A royal pair

Prince Harry of Great Britain and Meghan Markle, an American actress, feminist and humanitarian, meet with reporters. They announced their surprise engagement in November and were wed in spring 2018.

4 Hazardous stress reducers

A young woman passes the time by playing with a fidget spinner. Fidget spinners were a new hand-held toy designed to reduce stress that became wildly popular. But the spinners caused anxiety for parents due to safety concerns, including choking, fire and lead poisoning.

5 Fire danger

A Southern California man stops to pray as fires kicked up near his home in early December. The Santa Ana winds blow more fiercely and longer during the early winter, creating numerous wildfires that caused tens of thousands of people to evacuate.

From healthcare to taxes

Republicans in Congress, including House Speaker Paul Ryan, talk to reporters about their plans to repeal or modify the Affordable Care Act. Congress made no headway with their controversial healthcare plans in 2017, so both the House and Senate passed tax reform.

Riding out the storm

Rescue workers evacuate stranded residents in Texas during the 2017 Atlantic hurricane season, which was one of the busiest in years with 10 hurricanes forming and six reaching Category 3 or higher. Hurricane Harvey slammed into south Texas on Aug. 25 as a Category 4 and then stalled, causing catastrophic flooding. Hurricane Irma struck several Caribbean islands before hitting the Florida Keys as a Category 4 storm, and then traveled north through Florida. Hurricane Maria left a swath of devastation across Puerto Rico.

1 Houston, you have a champion

The Houston Astros celebrate after winning the World Series, defeating the Los Angeles Dodgers in seven games. Playing for a city devastated by a hurricane just two months earlier, the Astros survived a classic series filled with comebacks and extra-inning games to win the first world title in team history. Houston's George Springer was named MVP for slugging five home runs and eight extra base hits, the most ever in a World Series.

2 Sad day for U.S. soccer

U.S. men's soccer team player Paul Arriola gets tripped up during a World Cup qualifying game against Trinidad and Tobago on Oct. 10. For the first time in more than 30 years, the U.S. failed to qualify for the World Cup after they lost, 2-1, in a stunning defeat.

3 40 years in the making

Runner Shalane Flanagan reacts after crossing the finish line at the 2017 New York City Marathon on Nov. 5. Flanagan, a former Olympic bronze medalist, became the first American woman to win the New York City Marathon in 40 years.

4 Roll Tide!

Alabama quarterback Tua Tagovailoa attempts to run through the Georgia defense during the college football National Championship Game on Jan. 8 in Atlanta. Tagovailoa, an 18-year old freshman, came off the bench in the second half and helped the Crimson Tide rally from a 13-point deficit to win, 26-23, in overtime.

Fly, Eagles, fly!

Philadelphia's Nick Foles eludes the New England Patriots defense during Super Bowl 52 in Minneapolis. Foles, the Eagles backup QB who was forced to play when starter Carson Wentz was injured, led Philadelphia to a 41-33 win and was chosen the game's MVP by throwing for 373 yards and three touchdowns, as well as catching a touchdown. The two teams combined for 1,151 yards – the most in any single game in NFL history.

5 Boxing vs. MMA

Undefeated boxer Floyd Mayweather Jr. and mixed martial arts superstar Conor McGregor fight in a highly publicized boxing match on Aug. 26 in Las Vegas. The fight, which Mayweather won by TKO in the 10th round, generated more than 4.4 million pay-per-view buys in the U.S.
