Diboll Day

THE TRADITION CONTINUES

Diboll Day was first held in 1953 when money was raised to fund projects for the growing number of children in the community. This year was the 69th Diboll Day celebration in the Diboll community. At first a big parade was held. Churches, schools and other organizations from Diboll and surrounding areas participated. Once the parade ended, everyone went to the Old Orchard Park where the excitement began. Everyone enjoyed all the amazing activities. There were many cultures, fun games to play, and booths to visit. The main event was about the Diboll Day Queen. Each candidate and her supporters held numerous events to raise money. The candidate, along with her team, that raised the most money earned the privilege of being crowned Diboll Day Queen. This year the three candidates were Makiah Richardson, Chloe Wyatt-Chittum, and Annabeth Wilkerson. Each candidate spent time and energy to host numerous fundraisers, and this year Annabeth Wilkerson was announced Diboll Day Queen.

Darryn Weaver

Dear Family,

Thank you for continuously supporting me over these past few years of high school. Thank you for helping me get ready for college as well as passing on your work ethic to me. I wouldn't be here without you pushing me to work harder every day so that I can pursue a career I love. I look forward to becoming successful because of you. So, I just wanted to say, I very much appreciate you for everything they have done for me. I hope y'all enjoy this letter because Miss Brown made me. I wanted to play the song Dear Mama for 2pac instead, which would've been way easier, but Miss Brown said not for this. But, "You are appreciated!"

Sincerely, Boo

Mom & Dad-

I know it's been a long 18 years, but it's all coming to an end very soon. I wanted to say thank you from the bottom of my heart for everything that y'all have done for me and put up with throughout the years. I will forever be grateful for the countless times y'all were there when I needed it the most. Y'all have made me into the person I am today.

Love,
Haydn

I would like to thank each and everyone of my family members for assisting me in getting this far. I had some bad times this year with trying to accomplish what I accomplished, but it wouldn't be possible without the grace of God and my family members. I would like to thank my step-dad for being there when I needed him the most. Telling me things and boosting my confidence in many things. I would like to thank my dad for making me the great athletic man I am today, and I would most definitely like to thank my mom for being there when no one else could and standing right by my side. I love each and everyone of you for the things you have done for me and I thank you eternally for that. I will soon repay y'all.

Love,
Zach

Big D was the crossing guard at the Junior high when I attended school there. He always took the time to talk to me about school or anything in between. My Junior high years were rough but anytime I walked home to my grandma's house after school, I was always thrilled because I got to see Big D.
He was a staple in the community, and he always will be. He was the best representation of Diboll and our great school district.
We love you and miss you so much, Big D!

Big D,

Big D - You were one of the Big D was one of the most dedicated coaches I knew.

Always had a smile, willing to do anything for us. ~~He~~
His legs, in my opinion, was his passion for Diboll Kids - He ~~is~~ will always be missed - Great friend & colleague - Big D - Love you Buddy

Coach D,

I didn't have the privilege of working with you for long, but it was long enough for me to respect and admire your commitment to our students. Well done, thank you and faithful servant.

Joe Fuller

Big D was such a special person to the community. He was always smiling and positive to everyone. He made a difference in so many lives and he is truly missed.

Juan Alvarez

Big D was the definition of character and kindness.
He never met a stranger or a kid he didn't

A phone displays the Twitter account of billionaire Elon Musk and his tweets from Nov. 15. He was already the CEO of Tesla and SpaceX when he became sole owner of Twitter for $44 billion, and plunging stocks caused him to lose his rank as the world's richest man. Upon taking over the social media platform, Musk made a series of controversial decisions, including mass layoffs, implementation and then de-implementation of the Twitter Blue account verification program, and asking remaining employees to commit to working "long hours at high intensity" or leave the company. Their demands were partially answered in August, when Biden signed an executive order forgiving up to $20,000 of debt for millions of Americans. IMPORTANCE OF CPR

Following the on-field collapse of Damar Hamlin, the American Heart Association reported a 620% increase in page views on its CPR pages. According to the CDC, follow the below steps if you see someone in cardiac arrest:

1. Call 911 Right Away
2. Give CPR. Push down hard and fast in the center of the chest at a rate of 100 to 120 pushes a minute. Let the chest come back up to its normal position after each push. The American Heart Association (AHA) recommends timing your pushes to the beat of the song "Stayin' Alive."
3. Continue giving CPR until medical professionals arrive or until a person with formal CPR training can take over.
