DIBOLL, ANGELINA COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, SEPT. 27, 1956

NUMBER THIRTY FIVE

Diboll -- The Lumber and Wood Products Capitol Of The South. Home Of The Temple Industries

"THANK YOU, GOVERNOR" SAYS HORACE STUBBLEFIELD, (right) president of the Diboll Booster Club, as he accepts Gov. Allan Shivers proclamation. The paper proclaims Saturday, September 29, 1956 as Diboll Day in Texas. Looking on (center) is Clyde Thompson, chairman of Diboll Day decorations committee. Stubblefield and Thompson drove to Austin Friday and met with Governor Shivers, who presented the proclamation from his office in the capitol.

Diboll Routs Chester With Grimes; Meet Potent Lions Here Friday Night

NEW OFFENSE LOOKS GOOD FOR LOCALS

Royce Grimes is a halfback. That observation could be termed a dead certainty after Diboll's smashing victory of the Chester team last Friday to the tune of 28-0. In agreement with this is head coach Ervin DuBose, who said Saturday that he was aware of Grimes' potential as a halfback. DuBose added that he had also been skeptical of Mike Kerr's ability to hold down the quarterback position. The move proved advantageous to the local team Friday, however, and the Jacks will doubtless line up in much the same pattern for the Shelbyville tussle tomorrow night. Grimes ran for one touchdown from scrimmage, a distance of 40 yards, to open Diboll scoring in the first quarter. The score came late in the first period following a 60 yard scamper by right half Dude Courtney to the Chester 11. Capps drove to the 8. A holding penalty shoved them back to the 25. Courtney whisked to the 23. Capps bulled to the 18, then Grimes put the ball on the 16. Capps went for no gain. The ball went over to Chester, who punted to their own 40. On the second play, Grimes skirted his own right end behind good downfield blocking for the score. He juggled the ball twice on the 10, but retained possession. Hannah's kick was good. Score 7-0.

SECOND QUARTER

Chester fullback Cherry ripped Diboll's right side for good gains, but lack of speed slowed the Jacks down. With four minutes still in the half, Diboll took possession on their own 40. Courtney was good for 15 to the Chester 45. Grimes for five to the 40. Capps fought to the 38. An offside penalty moved them back to the 40. Then, with the entire Jack backfield tearing out around right end, Kerr pitched out to Grimes. The halfback faded back and found Bobby Glover on the 10 with a perfect shot. Glover romped over for the second TD. Hannah's kick was no good. Score 13-0. The play covered 38 yards.

Mike Kerr did a commendable job of ball handling and he called an excellent game from his newly-found quarterback position. Observers, of course, were elated to see that DuBose also has a fine extra point kicker in John Hannah, who is also an experienced lineman on both offense and defense.

GRIMES INTERCEPTS

Early in the third stanza, Grimes intercepted a Chester pass on the enemy 15 and pounced into the end zone behind two Jack linemen. A run by Hannah for the point was no-good. Score 19-0.

Grimes again stopped a Chester drive in the fourth quarter when he dragged in a Lawrence pass on the 45 and tip-toed the far sidelines for this third T-D. Hannah's kick was still good after a five yard penalty. Score 26-0.

CHESTER WEAK

Chester's Yellowjacks never mounted a strong offensive. The 180-pound Cherry, Wilson, and Moore pounded through the Jack right side for nice gains, but lack of speed kept them from penetrating the secondary.

Dude Courtney and Donald Capps alternated quick openings with sheer power running during the game, thus enabling Grimes to slip away unnoticed on his wide runs. Courtney was stout on defense, playing much of the game in Chester's backfield as playing much of the game in Chester's backfield while fouling up quarterback Lawrence's passing attempts.

Health is something that is appreciated by those who need it most.

Navy Chaplin Will Preach Sept. 30.

The Reverend A. R. Reed, former Navy Chaplain, will be the Guest Preacher at the First Methodist Church at the Morning worship next Sunday. Morning worship begins at 11 a.m.

The Rev. Mr. Reed returned to the active status of the ministry in The Texas Conference at the Annual Conference in June, and was appointed Director of Wesley Bible Choir and Methodist Student Movement at Stephen F. Austin College in Nacogdoches.

The Rev. D. Townes Wind-

drun, pastor of the church, extends a cordial invitation to all who are not attending worship service in the other churches in Diboll to worship at First Methodist Church Sunday morning and hear The Reverend A. R. Reed preach.

Sunday Promotion Planned At Baptist Sunday School Class

Sunday is promotion day at Diboll's First Baptist Church, according to an announcement by Mr. V. B. McKinney, Sunday School superintendent. All departments of the Sunday class will receive promotion certificates and the new teachers will be given an opportunity to meet the boys and girls that are being promoted into their class.

"We are happy over the prospects for the new year's work," Brother McKinney said. The faculty will be of the very best we have and we urge all enrolled in our Sunday School to be present for the services this Sunday. Sunday School begins at 9:45 a.m.

Cameras To Grind Here Saturday

Humble Oil and Refining Co. cameras will start grinding here at 10 a.m. Saturday morning. They will continue to cover all the main events of Diboll Day for the Humble Co.'s weekly TV show "Texas In Review", seen each Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. on KTRF-TV in Lufkin.

Mr. Frank Zehentner will be shooting unknown quantities of film on the annual celebration. How much of it will be used later on the program is not yet known.

Some 6500 residents of Diboll, surrounding towns and cities, and ex-students of Diboll High School are expected to be on hand as subjects for Mr. Zehentner's camera shots.

Little "D"

Quite a few men around town have responded to our 'feelers' concerning a Quarterback Club. There have been about thirty requests about the club, and I'm sure there are others who would be interested if they were asked directly. However, more interest must be shown if a club is to be started.

If you are interested, dial 2226 anytime.

Well, D-Day is approaching and barring rain or any other unforeseen occurrences, should come off as planned. A lot of the work has gone into this edition of D-Day, although the usual interest seems to have diminished somewhat from previous years. You hear a lot of talk about this and that, but about all it amounts to is that all of us are beginning to find fault with the big day. Sort of like a good comedy at the movies. The first time it's real funny, the second time not quite so funny, and from then on you know what to expect.

I think most of us are proud of Diboll and want to show off a bit, but we should not forget the true spirit in which Diboll Day was founded — and that is to have a wholesome community celebration that is free of cynical thoughts and remarks of those who have worked to make it possible.

—pd—

Actually, all Dibollians may feel very proud that Humble Co. will point its TV cameras in the direction of Diboll. Many thanks are in order to George Wilmoth of Humble's Dallas office, the former Dibollian who got the ball rolling on the television project.

George, along with several hundred other ex-students and former citizens, will be here on Saturday trying to get on the "Texas In Review" screen.

—pd—

If and when Humble uses Diboll Day on "Texas In Review," time will be prominently displayed on page one of this newspaper.

—jd—

A lot of talk has been going around about a radio station being installed here. As far as we know, Arthur Temple Jr. has applied to the FCC for a franchise. Latane Temple, speaking in behalf of Arthur Temple said that it will be from 60 to 90 days before any word is received from the FCC.

That's it — no more.

—pd—

We did not come out with any extra pages in the N-B this year for Diboll Day, as has been the custom in the past. The reason is that we plan to issue a "Progress Edition" sometime after the first of the year. This Diboll Day would have been a wonderful time for such an edition, but we just haven't had enough time to get things lined out during the past year as we would have liked them.

—pd—

Bob Scoggin was testing a new pair of field glasses Sunday in preparation for deer season. Don Turner reports that he, John Lea and Sherod Powell caught several large, white perch at Dam B last week. Turner said John let the big one get away.

Next week we should have some very interesting personal items, however, following the big event. A lot of old timers and old acquaintances should show

SHELBYVILLE COULD 'UPSET THE CART'

Shelbyville's Lions come roaring into town tomorrow afternoon for what promises to be the big test for Ervin DuBose's Lumberjacks.

The Homecoming game will get underway at 8 p.m. with an overflow crowd of 1500 expected to watch the proceedings.

Thus far the Lions are without a victory this season. They have absorbed defeats by Timpson, 14-6, and last week by the ominous Garrison Bulldogs, 21-0. Still, they reputedly have a better team than they have had in ten years.

DuBose said his charges did not seem over-confident following last week's win. The head coach and line coach Roy Young have put the locals through the toughest workouts of the season this week in preparation for a good showing before more than 500 ex-students.

Diboll owns victories over Elkhart, 12-6, and Chester, 26-0. They lost a game to Colmesneil, 6-0, in their only game away from home.

With Shelbyville boasting a top flight defensive unit, DuBose will have to dig deep into his bag of tricks in order to find a successful scoring formula. The Jacks never found the ingredients for such a formula in the Colmesneil contest.

Due for action for the Jacks will be ends, Bobby Glover and Glen Smith; tackles James Johnson, Vernon Oaks, Robert Rector, and John Hannah; center Henry Goins; guards Leo Clark, Charlie Carr; backs Donald Capps, Royce Grimes, Carl Black, Morris Smith, Mike Kerr, and Dude Courtney. Reserves in the line will probably be spasmotic, made by DuBose after he has seen the Shelbyville offense.

A mission at the gate is 75c and 35c.

Editor Picks Diboll Over Shelbyville

After guessing correctly on 2 of Diboll's first three football games we come to the contest with Shelbyville tomorrow night. The game could easily go in favor of the visiting Lions even though the Lumberjacks will probably be fired up for the homecoming crowd.

We can't do much worse than Bob Bowman of the Tyler Telegraph, however, who has failed to pick Diboll in the right column all year. He picked Elkhart over Diboll, Diboll over the Colmesneil squad, and Chester over Diboll. None of these panned out. We picked Diboll over Elkhart by one TD which they accomplished; we called Diboll over Colmesneil by an extra point and missed by seven points; we picked the Jacks by two TD's over Chester and they won by four.

Without sticking our chest out too far, and with a good possibility of lowering our prognosticating (to the un-initiated — that is a five-cylinder word for predicting circumstances before they have, or may have, taken place, and the outcome thereof, —MA) record to an even 500, we'll stay with the Lumberjacks for a one touchdown win. Make it about 20-13.

Diboll Couple Hear Marriage Vows

Rose Marie Miranda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J J Miranda of Diboll and Pvt. Albert Leon Grumbles, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Grumbles of Diboll, exchanged mardiage vows, in a double-ring ceremony on Sept. 5, 1956 at the First Baptist with Bro. Don Turner officiating.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Dave Martinez, the bride wore a white bridal dress with silver trim and a matching veil. The bride's bouquet was of red carnations with red streamers.

Attendants were Miss Doris Hoffingsworth, maid of honor; Earl F. Steel, best man; Joe Miranda, groomsman; and Mrs. Beatrice Steel, bridesmaid.

Miss Lavern Weeks sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the piano by Miss Shirley McKinney, who also played the traditional "Wedding March".

A reception was given honoring the bride and groom in the Intermediate Department of the First Baptist Church. Receptionists were Miss Nanree Turner and Miss Carolyn Kelly. Ushers were Amos Lewis and Travis Parker.

The groom is a 1952 graduate of Apple Springs High and at present is serving in the U. S. Army. He is to be stationed in Germany. The bride is a 1956 graduate of Diboll High School.

Carpenters Busy On Permanent Buildings

Temple Associate carpenters were busy this week building the permanent concession stands and booths at the Community Park (Scout House), in preparation for Saturday's Diboll Day proceedings. Tables from which several hundred pounds of barbecue will be served at 50c a plate are also being readied.

Members of the Booster Club were tied up with maps and diagrams figuring out parade routes, laying down patterns for thru traffic and getting general continuity set up for the big day.

Queen's Race Tightens As T-W Entry Moves Ahead

Booster Prexy Gives D-Day Finance Info

Horace Stubblefield said today that all proceeds from Diboll Day would go into the School Building Fund.

The Booster president said that the club had adopted a policy of first raising money then allocating it to various 'needy' organizations affiliated with the school.

"We don't know how much money we will make, so we can't very well promise any given amount to any group or organization until a definite and direct accounting of all finances is made," Stubblefield said.

Stubblefield told The News Bulletin that the Club would publish a full statement of expenses and profits emerging from Diboll Day in this newspaper as soon as possible after the event is over Saturday.

Friendship Program To Be On T-V

Diboll Day will be featured on "Friends and Neighbors", television station KTRF's big Angelina County friendship program, it was announced today by Horace Stubblefield, president of the Diboll Boosters.

"Friends and Neighbors" appears on Monday afternoons at 4:00 p.m. and features talent of the Angelina County region.

The Betty Brown Quartet and two other outstanding acts will perform, according to Foster King, chairman of the music committee for Diboll Day.

"KTRF-TV is a big thing in the lives of Diboll people," says King. "It has enhanced everyone's appreciation of music and its friendliness toward the home and community activities has made it vastly popular in Diboll."

The four-way race by Diboll girls for the title of 'Diboll Day Queen', 1956, tightened considerably today as Carolyn Grimes moved closer to the leader in the race, Billy Jean Clark.

Charles Hanks of Diboll State Bank posted point totals last Friday for the four girls which showed Miss Clark in the lead by approximately 29,000 points. Hanks said final point tabulation would probably be made tomorrow afternoon.

Point totals for the four beauties as of Friday, Sept. 21: Billy Jean Clark, (Sp. by Temple-White) 89,250; Carolyn Grimes, (Sp. by Truck Shop and Mill), 60,500; Betty Brown (Sp. by S. P. Office), 41,410; Carolyn Kelly (Sp. by Logging, Box Factory, and Treating Div.), 30,000.

One penny is worth one point in the race; i.e., a $1 bill would constitute 100 points for a nominee. Points can be amassed by sale of boat tickets, food tickets, or rummage sales. Any contribution to the Queen's Race is divided four ways, with each nominee getting her share, Hank said.

Hanks said he was sure that final totals for all four nominees would be changed greatly during the last two or three days before Diboll Day, which is on Saturday.

WSCS Will Meet At Hogue Home

The regular meeting of the WSCS will be held next Monday at the home of Mrs. Jim Hogue at 7 p.m.

Monthly service and business of the organization will be studied. Hostesses will be Mrs. Hogue and Mrs. Gus Allen.

Last Monday the group had their second study lesson on Southeast Asia. Found more lessons will complete the course.

Mrs. Charles Welmer is teacher of the six unit course.

From among the 75 boys present, 11 schools were represented. Two voting delegates from each school cast votes for officers.

Panel Room At Pine Bough Is Enlarged

The Panel Room of The Pine Bough restaurant here has been enlarged to accommodate a steady upswing of business according to Diboll's newest eating place, says Julius Bird, manager.

A solid partition between the Panel Room and private dining room has been removed, nearly doubling the seating capacity of the beautifully decorated room. Bird said that wall-to-wall carpets, lighting fixtures, and drapes had been ordered for the additional space.

Sliding doors will separate the Panel Room into two sections for private parties. Seating capacity for the enlarged dining area is now about 120, Bird said.

An area meeting of the Texas Restaurant Association, of which The Pine Bough is a member, will be held here today.

With the boys and girls of Angelina County going off to college in a week or so, why not give them a subscription to the Diboll News-Bulletin? It's like a letter from home.

Christians Are Devoted To Restoration Of New Testament Christianity

The Church of Christ Speaks

THE CHURCH OF CHRIST SPEAKS

Many God-fearing, Bible-believing persons have been mistaken about baptism. One of the first of these was Apollos of Alexandria. He was an eloquent man, a man mighty in the Scriptures. Also he was "instructed in the way of the Lord... and was 'fervent in the spirit.'" He "spoke and taught diligently," but he was mistaken about baptism (Acts 18:25.)

He knew only the baptism of John the baptizer, and had not learned of the baptism into Christ. Paul explains that John Baptized "with a baptism of Repentance" telling the people that they should believe on the one who was to come after John, "that is, on Christ, Jesus." Apollos was living up to the best light that he had. He was telling people to be baptized, but he didn't know the baptism into Christ "unto the remission of sins" (Acts 2:38.) "Into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:19.)

He and those whom he taught in Ephesus had been immersed or baptized, but without a proper understanding of the act. Their immersion had not been into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. What should they do? What should honest believers in Christ do today when they find out that that they have not completely conformed to the teaching of Christ is this regarded? Should Apollos become offended when Aquila and Priscilla bring this matter to his attention? Should he shrug his shoulders and say that "Baptism doesn't make any difference anyway?" Of course not. Aquila and Priscilla took him aside and

That striped-clad fellow on the ground might be calling on Allah from all appearances, but he's only one of the inmate cowboys participating in the annual Prison Rodeo who failed to ride that wild, leaping bronc. The big convict rodeo, wilder than ever, plays its 25th season with four big Sunday performances, October 7, 14, 21 and 28.

"taught him the way of the Lord, more perfectly." He accepted their teaching humbly. Later taught twelve disciples at Ephesus who had learned only "John's baptism" and they "were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus" (Acts 19:5.)

It is just that simple. Study the book of Acts closely and see if you have obeyed the command to believers in Christ to "repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins. . . ." (Acts 2:38.) GOOD-SPEED translates the last phrase "in order to have your sins forgiven." If you have not done this then don't hesitate to make sure that you have obeyed the Lord in this respect. Baptism is not a church ordinance or command. It is a command of the Lord Jesus Christ. It is a personal matter. Who baptizes you is not too important, but the important thing is that you are "buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father even so we should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection. . . ." (Romans 6:4,5)

If you are not certain you have been scripturally baptized, we urge you to follow the example of Apollos and the twelve disciples at Ephesus who were immersed the second time to be sure that they did exactly what Jesus wanted done. Any command of Jesus is important. 20th. Century Christian M. Norvel Young.

Deason, Helen May, Elizabeth Blue, Flo Alexander, Nancy Shelton, Betty Bartlett, Bill Blue, Claire Nell Primos, Betty Murray, O. D. Thigpen, William Lang. Most vacationists have now gotten over their vacations and are beginning to get down to work again.

A compliment a day not make prosperous but it will make you feel like you have a fortune.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Winder have returned from a vacation trip which took them through Colorado, New Mexico, and several other states.

There is now a child nursery at the First Methodist Church, sponsored by the W. S. C. The nursery is open from 10:45 until 12 noon each Sunday.

Bro. and Mrs. J. D. McNeal and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Lord, and Mr. and Mrs. Bryce attended the Congregational Methodist Conference at Houston last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Youngblood and son, Delbert are now living in Corrigan.

Max Neil and his band from Nacogdoches, will play for the ex-student dance, scheduled for high school gym at 8 p. m. Saturday night. Admission is $1.00 per person.

Red Lyles was in another logging accident last Friday.

With Angelina County children getting ready to go back to school, it might be a good idea for parents to persuade them to study.

Between now and election day the candidates will be courting the favor of special groups and there's no telling what will be promised.

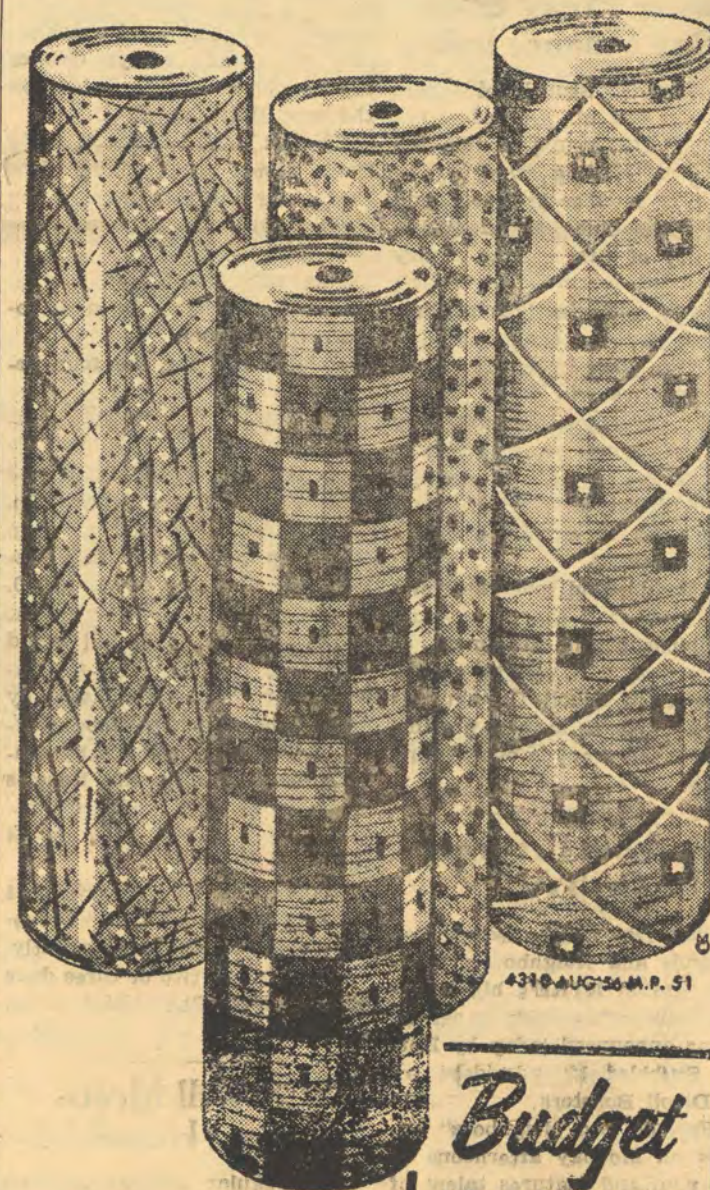

Next Sunday the churches here will be open and, if you feel so inclined, you can listen to the preacher of your choice without any expense.

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa:

I have been going with a girl who is several years younger than I am. I am madly in love with her and have asked her to marry me when I finish college. She seems to like me very much, dates me when I can get over to her town, and writes regularly. But she won't give me a definite answer, and says she won't until she makes up her mind.

She also goes with a good friend of mine just about as much as she does with me.

Don't you think she should make up her mind just who she likes best - me or my friend?

SOPH. - Va.

ANSWER:

It may be, as she says, that she can't decide between you and there is no absolute way of making her do so.

THE OLD—This Virginia house was built in 1690. Hallway, stairs and rooms were paneled with Southern Pine, still in excellent condition after three centuries of use. No finish whatever was applied to the wood, which simply was allowed to mellow with age.

If a boy stops paying attention to a girl, this sometimes makes her realize that she doesn't want to lose him. On the other hand, it does leave the field open to the other fellow, who has a chance to be on hand all of the time.

The girl you are going with is still young, and I think you would be wise to let her take her time about deciding between you.

She is honest about how she feels, so that is one thing to be thankful for.

Good Luck,
LOUISA.

Dear Louisa:

I have tried to teach my little boy not to fight, but now that he has started to school it seems that if he doesn't fight, he will be beaten up by children who think he is afraid.

What must I do?

MOAHER - Conn.

ANSWER:

I think it is a great mistake to teach children not to defend themselves. Teach them not to provoke or start a fight, but if anyone attacks them, to protect themselves and also smaller children who are being bullied by larger ones.

Very often the best way to live peacefully is to know how to protect yourself.

Dear Louisa:

My husband and I have had our house plans for many years but prices are so out of reason that we will either have to build a smaller house or wait a few more years.

What would you advise us to do?

Answer:

If your plans are such that you can build part of your house now and add the rest later, you will probably be better satisfied than to put aside the plan altogether.

So many of the houses of today are planned so that one or two rooms can be added without spoiling the looks of the house, and yet the original unit seems complete.

Temple Tigers Win Season Opener

The Temple Tigers of Diboll opened their 1956 football season Saturday night, Sept. 15th, against Scott High School of Woodville at Woodville. The Tigers came out on the long end of the scoring 13 to 2. The Tigers wasted no time in starting the scoring. On the second play of the game, the Tiger quarterback Melvin Taylor, circled his own left end and stepped off 71 yards for the first touchdown. The Tigers dominated play throughout the first half.

Late in the second quarter, the Scott high team was forced to punt from it on the 40 yd. line. Freddie Randolph took the ball on his own 20 yd. line and returned it 50 yards to the Scott 30 yd. line. From there Jeffero, Hubbard and Cade moved the ball to the Scott 8 yd. line. Taylor scored on a quarterback keeper after a beautiful fake to left half back Albert Delco. Midway the second period, Scott drove down to the Tiger 1 foot line, but the Tigers line failed to give any ground.

Tiger defensive standouts were Cade, Sippo, Hubbard, Lea, Delco, Rish, Jeffero and Smith. Cade was trapped in the end zones to give Scott its 2 points. Herbert Allen is coach. His assistants are A. M. Jeffero and Willie Ross.

The success of a meal depends very largely upon the excellence of the cook.

It won't be long now before we know whether election predictions were correct.

Automobiles And Horsepower . . .

We were interested in the suggestion of Congressman Walter Roper, (D-Tex.) that automobiles be taxed according to their horsepower. The idea behind this suggestion is apparently the thought that such taxing would slow up the horsepower race among automobile builders.

The federal tax on automobiles now applies to price as do most state taxes, which includes sales taxes. If the tax were to be shifted to horsepower, in the case of federal levies, quite a controversy would arise.

For one thing, the owner of a larger automobile would find himself taxed for power instead of price and he would be able to buy a heavier, underpowered car at less tax cost than a lighter, adequately powered vehicle. He would feel that whatever safety factor there is in having sufficient passing and accelerating power was penalizing him.

Owners of sports cars, which might have great power, but which are light, might pay a proportionately very heavy tax. No doubt kits for up-grading the engine of various cars would be used more widely, if such a system were adopted by the federal government.

Generally speaking the idea is not a bad one, but the fairest tax is the tax which takes into consideration what a man is spending, not the power he is getting. And we are not so sure that high-powered cars are not safer than lower-powered ones, which will stand still run extremely fast.

In other words, who knows what power will be needed in the future for safety? Air conditioning, and other extras now catching on, require more and more horsepower. Who is to decide in the government - what horsepower is adequate, what is too much, etc? There is no easy or simple answer to the question.

Lea Reports On D-Day Concessions

John Lea this week authorized The News-Bulletin to list profit margins gained from the Diboll Day concessions committee, of which he is chairman.

Lea said that the total number of derbies sold could not be determined, but that they were still selling for $1 each. The hats cost 48c, including freight, giving the Booster Club building fund a profit of 52c for each of the hats.

Shirts for the Boosters cost $2.42, and are selling for $3.00 each, giving the Boosters a profit of 58c for each sale. T-shirts have been selling for 75c. They cost 50c, giving a total of 35c profit on each sale.

Ruby said he was very grateful to Mr. McCurry and his boys for the wonderful work they did in distributing the pole posters.

Dorris Addresses Brotherhood Group

Mr. M. S. Dorris, Lufkin business man and former resident of Diboll, spoke to the Brotherhood of the First Baptist on Monday night. Brother Dorris emphasized the responsibility of laymen giving their witness for Christ as they go about their regular vocational duties.

Shed Powell, Brotherhood president for the past year, announced that the Brotherhood would meet every Monday night at 7:30 p.m. Everybody is welcome, Powell said.

Not to be outdone, the guest followed suit.

The President added cream and sugar in the saucer, and tasted the mixture with his spoon.

The guest was about to do likewise when Mr. Coolidge set the saucer on the floor for the dog.

Use Our Lay Away

Do you bring home everything you've paid for?

It's a good question.

Which you can answer "yes" — if you always buy from the business people right here at home. Where you live.

Wherever you buy, part of your money goes to build and to keep up the community in which you spend. To support schools, churches, civic projects, to pay the people who work in that community, and to provide better business and job opportunities for those who live there.

When you buy in YOUR OWN town, you get about the same merchandise you'd get anywhere else — PLUS the enjoyment of these other things that your money pays for.

When you buy anywhere else, you get merchandise ONLY. And your home community is a little poorer because you carried off part of its resources. And the many things other than goods that your money pays for are left for somebody else to enjoy, while they wait for you to return and give them some more.

From many quarters comes the prediction that President Eisenhower will have a tougher time carrying several Southern States this year than he did in 1952.

One of these sources, the news magazine US News and World Report, has been in close touch with political currents in Southern States and has reported the issues on the integration battle accurately. In predicting that President Eisenhower would have a tougher fight in the S. this year, US News and World Report also revealed results of various polls, some of which will be interesting to the reader.

One of them, for example, showed that in a recent poll, seventy-one per cent of the people of the nation favored a gradual approach to the integration problem. Of this seventy-one per cent, twenty five-per cent favored no integration at all. Only 18 per cent favored immediate integration.

This should be a clear warning to the politicians that the people of this country do not want immediate integration and certainly do not want integration by force. Therefore, the political hacks who attempt to pressure officials into force action, or statements in behalf of such action, on the ground that it is necessary for political victory, are far off base.

What is probably sad news for most tax-paying citizens is the report that prospects for a tax cut in 1957 are now considerably dimmed. The Budget Bureau has recently estimated that the current fiscal year, which will end June 30th, 1957, will produce a surplus of just over $700,000,000. That means that a tax cut might put the Government in the red again.

Although both parties are now pledged to tax cuts — at the earliest possible time — unless Congress reduces the expenditures of the Administration, which is possible, the Government might find itself unable to lower taxes and also balance the budget in fiscal 1957.

Of course, Congress might not vote as much money as the Administration requests, especially on such issues as foreign aid.

This year, Congress whacked over a billion dollars off the President's foreign aid proposals, and the Budget Bureau's estimates may be tuned to the monetary requests from the Administration. Therefore, a tax cut is still a possibility.

"HIGH SOCIETY"

This is a re-make of the film, "The Philadelphia Story," the story of Philip Barry. You will probably remember that the original screen version presented Katherine Hepburn, James Stewart, Ruth Hussey, Ronald Young, to mention a few.

Now in gorgeous Technicolor, it is being presented under the title "High Society," and this time as a musical, with a score by Cole Porter. Grace Kelly is impersonating Tracy Lord, whose first marriage to a member of her own fashionable class (Bing Crosby) is wrecked because of something approaching incompatibility. Miss Lord was about as warm as a statue carved in ice. Superficially, she is a lost cause romantically and a haughty prig, to boot.

But under her rather chilly exterior, there is a woman's heart yearning for love, and she is given the opportunity to prove it on the eve of her second venture into marriage. She quaffs too much champagne, gets squiffy goes swimming in the nude and does a few other things she knew nothing about. She returns to her first husband and it seems that all is well that ends well.

Miss Kelly is excellent in the role — being not only a vision in patrician loveliness but also an entrancing comedienne. All of the others in the cast are similarly well bestowed. The music by Mr Porter is excellent, while Louis Armstrong and his jazzloons do a great deal to give the film a musical life.

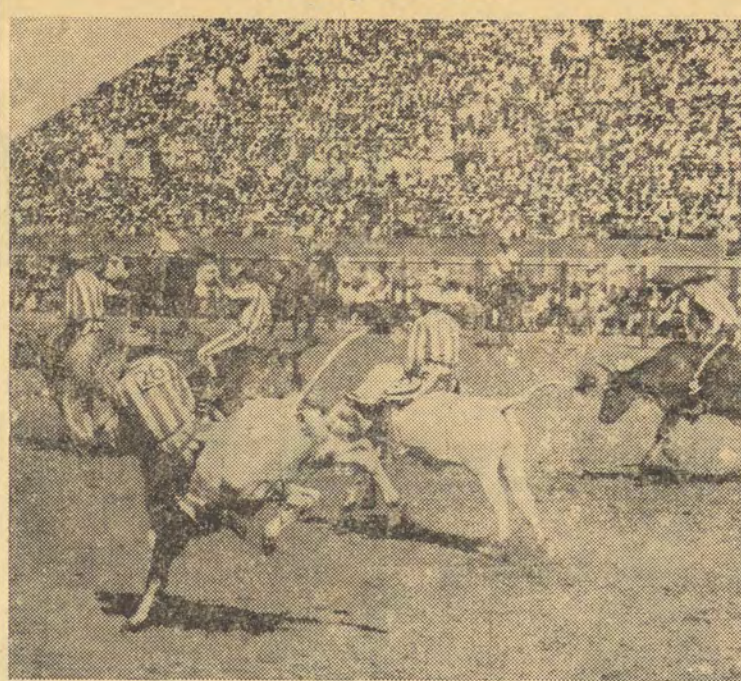

"WHILE THE CITY SLEEPS"

This film, adapted from Charles Einstein's novel, "The Elody Spur," by Casey Robinson, is about a psychopathic murderer played with considerable distinction by John Barrymore, Jr.

He has the role of a young man who specializes in the thrill-killing of young girls. The cast, which is excellent, includes Dana Andrews, Ida Lupino, Rhonda Fleming, George Sanders, Vincent Price, Thomas Mitchell, Sally Forrest, Howard Duff, to mention a few.

As the psychopathic murderer, Barrymore, is one of the most malevolent, unwholesome young devils seen on the screen in some time. Weak-minded play boy Vincent Price, who has just inherited a newspaper empire from his father, offers the top shot in the organization to the executive member of the staff who cracks the latest brutal murder of a young girl. This puts other members of the staff in

Plenty of Bull

Everything is done on a big scale in Texas. Convict cowboys are no exception when it comes to bull riding in the annual Prison Rodeo's opening event. They ride 'em in bunches of 10 at a time and call it the "Mad Scramble." This unique event will open each of the four bigger, better and wilder performances of this year's 25th Annual Prison Rodeo at Huntsville each Sunday afternoon in October.

bitter competition or the post. Not many of the characters are likable, and the ukly ways in which they connive to knife and outwit others to satisfy their own selfish ambitions is anything but exemplary, but is so recognizably true to life that it is fascinating.

SOP FOR SAPHEADS

Magazines are now appearing with the 1956 All-American football selections featured therein. What a marvelous country this is — when full and half-baked sports writers can select their All American teams even before the football games which will determine the actual games sensible choices, are played!

We have always thought this was one of the most ridiculous practices of certain magazines and sports writers passed off the reading public of America. But the practice is more than that. It is unfair to the players in all parts of the country, trying to make All-American ratings.

First, it gives the boy who is picked by a friend or an admirer in the writing game attention he might not other get — from various selections. He is prominent before a game is played — he has been picked by so-and-so as an All-American.

In some cases, according to the temperament of the player involved, it puts the boy on a spot and affects his game. In any case, no matter how you look at it, there is absolutely no justification for pre-season selections of All-American college players.

This year's All-Americans will be picked on their performances this season. How good they were last year should have nothing whatever to do with it. How good someone says they'll be should not count either.

So — all in all — the All-American players of each season should take a note from the kom book of these writers and open and pick the most valuable player of each Major League in the Spring. And why not choose the top hitter, before the season is played. Wouldn't that save a lot of useless confusion?

Accidents continue to kill careless people.

Some institutions of learning will lose prestige this fall on the football field.

Our Own Dictionary — Self control: Something we tell our children they should acquire.
