

Senior Wills

The following do hereby bequeath:

Analyn Anderson wills Ted and David Stewart unmatched name tags and many more "harmonius" times in choir, and to Paul Kennedy I will a French-English dictionary, dancing lessons, and a few more marbles to fill up his Scatterbrain.

Susie and Mark will Shelia Hutson the ability to teach sophomores how to have a great time at parties. Good Luck, Shelia!

Marilyn White wills Kay Ramsey her prized chair in Mr. Holcomb's Civics Class, and a fantastic year at L.H.S.

Jane McGilvra wills Bruce Honea, Charles McMullen, and David Stewart the ability to uphold the principles of weirdism throughout high school.

Enola Sims wills Gena Wade someone to keep reminding her that Twirp Week does not last all year long.

DECA wills Mr. Tubbe the green, green grass of home.

Charles Bentley wills to brother Byron two more years of lovely L.H.S.

Second period DE wills Richard Hensarling one case of Borden's Chocolate Milk.

David Higgins wills Linda Lively all the Bubble Gum and Bubbles money can buy, and to Sarah McKelvy, more sweat the next time you sneak out.

Linda Zealger wills Sue Ann Standley a new tape deck for her room, and Jane Wolf the lesson taught in Nursing, May 2, 1973.

From the Seniors to the sophomores and the juniors, where there's a will, there's a way, and here's the will.

Tommy Pope wills his wife four bottles of hot sauce and a fifth.

Joy Poland wills Sand, Rita, Flora, Jetta, Marianne, and LeeAnn all of my good times I had as an LHS cheerleader.

Gerald Kimmey wills Leight Williams a 12-12-pound tube of red lipstick, a King James version of the Bible and the front pew at her neighborhood church.

Janet and Enola will Mrs. Miller two quart size glasses and a case of Grape Tang.

Marc Metteauer wills Joel Havard a chicken coop to put his hen-pecked head in.

Senior girls of late lunch will Judy Bardwell, sophomore favorite, junior favorite, and Miss LHS to follow the career of Esther.

Dianne Moore and Susie Windsor will Leslie Mott another trip to the Civic Park, another good friend to take her there, and the truth.

Guyla Carlton wills Mrs. Morrison pews for her sanctuary.

Lloyd Parker wills Linda Miller the self-control to keep her mouth shut at Ricky Martin's future parties.

Suzanne Fitts wills Jay Shands sweeter dreams at the Koch's lakehouse, and a girl to go along with them.

Susie Havard wills Donna Manley a picture of David Allen, so she won't have to follow him down the hall.

Lloyd Parker wills Sharon Brock five new bright colors to break the monotony of first lunch.

Brenda Widner wills Rita Gray something red and a great senior year, and to Richard Collins all of Kevin's haircuts.

Fifth period French class wills Judy Allen ten bushels of shiny red apples and a trip to France to show off her techniques.

Cindy Price wills Kathy Anthony 15 more pounds for her "hip hugger" pants and to Sherri Price, all the unforgettable times she spent in the gym—including Thursday nights.

Gerald Kimmey wills Michele White the ability to ask a boy to take her home and know before she gets to his living room that he didn't really take her home.

Maylene wills all her love to Gary, and her fellow sophomores a permission slip to stare full-time with all the benefits that come with it.

Marian Walker wills Anthony Pendland a new hat and also the prospective seniors all the luck on their further imprisonments.

Esther Spring wills her sister, Glenora, two more fantastic (?) years of LHS, my room and the ability to put up with certain people.

A Senior wills Nathan Chappel combs and brushes to comb that rat nest on top of his head.

Glenn Lenderman wills Bobby Dees all of his broken drum sticks, broken drum heads, worn out drums, and a worn out girl friend.

A Senior wills Debbie Cotton a shepard named David, or if she prefers, a real witt-y guy.

The senior girls will Patti Hodges a case of Cokes.

Senior men will David Stokes a pair of pants that come up to his waist, and a pair of arms long enough to pull them up.

Rick Martin wills Mr. Holcomb 10,000 banana trees for his front yard so he can have hisvery own banana eating contest.

Ben Tittle wills Dale Trimble a whole fifth of that "stuff" he drank at Metteaur's.

Ragan Tate wills James Husband, another senior's little sister to call every 5 minutes and her brother.

Marilyn White wills Marcie Dominey 1,000 hands to dip ice cream with, the boy of her choice and a wonderful Senior year.

Jan Holt wills her "Yankee accent" to gene Morgan.

Burt Brookshire wills Barbara his ulcer, 23 fake hall passes, and his talent of lying to teachers.

Senior tenors of the A'Capella choir will James Lowry a better story about Sherrie O.

Doyle Womack and David Lively will Ben Tittle, David Root, Marc Metteaur, and Joel Havard another trip to Bossier City and better luck to David.

Ginny Temple wills Teresa Segrest a crate of Ben Gay and a "tweeter-tweeter."

Mike Slaydon wills Kim Stewart a chocolate flavored shoe since it stays in his mouth so often.

Enola Sims wills Tamara Cox a back door to the back rom of the store and lots more luck with a 'David.'

Mrs. Seago's 4th period class wills David Hearne the ability to make a decision.

David Stephens wills to Patti Hodges a new car that will go over 40 mph so she can come see him at the University of Texas.

Sally Ann Basey wills David Garrett a girl he won't use; Jimmy McCarty an invitation he can keep; and Sandra Walton my passes to leave campus.

Gerald Drake wills Mr. Holder all of his athletic technology and physical abilities, and his ability to outwit his corny jokes; to Paul Hartfield his great catching skill and his intramural basketball team and its headache; and to anyone his chair in choir with all the headaches and his matchless low voice.

Jim Dowling wills Allen Teer his little sister, a private lunch tables and someone to tell him to eat his vegetables.

We the senior bandsmen of '73 will to Gilford Wayne Stovall, the honorable title of "Nookie" for the new year.

Rosanne Andrews wills to Seniority Collins, a lifetime supply of chocolate chip cookies, and a place in the lunch line; to Dennis Poplin, my Chemistry Afro Kit; to Debra Stewart, more Russian lessons; to Petrina Lampkin, "Myrtle," and many happy memories from wasting your time sitting in the woods; and to Helen Andrews the best of luck with Edward Paul, and more time to watch my spare.

Steve C. wills Ted Stewart all the luck in telling his corny jokes; Sammy Little a pacifier; Jeff Griffin all the luck in drawing his posters for Mac's Minute Market; Miss Oates all the luck she can get in winning the Miss Texas Pageant; and to Lester F. all the girls he can shake hands with.

Doyle Womack wills David Root a tape player that won't fall apart at the wrong time, and to Joel Havard a new parking place.

Seniors in second period chemistry will the junior boys a pair of bifocals each so they won't strains they eyes cheating.

Senior girls will Dwaine Davis a year's supply of Cover Girl and a case of beer to pour out.

A Senior girl wills Margie Sewell a larger lunch table; Allen Teer a girl his own size; and also to Allen, a free call to the cops and a wrapped house every weekend.

Karen Mills wills Judy Allen lots of great times as a Senior; and Sam McCoy, a goat roping time.

Sherry Terry wills Brenda Terry all the hardships, fun and teachers she had a LHS; and to Peggy Batten, all the happiness and fun in FHA.

A Senior wills Regina Hamilton all the power in the world to catch her man without backstabbing the LHS sisters.

Golden Perry wills her boldness, brains and shorthand notebook to Sheryl Forney, her shape to Brenda Hadnot, and her togetherness to C.C.

Margaret Johnson wills all her love to Dennis Bluford.

Maylene Richards wills her seat tin Mrs. Bradford's room to Carolyn Moore and her job at the U.S. Marine Corp to some very lucky person. Good Luck!

Johnny Ross wills Mr. Harris a bigger eye and a hotter hand so he will be able to rope the trash can.

A Senior wills Jacqueline Richards the ability to cope with situations now that your bodyguard is leaving.

Ronnie Brewster wills Coach Powell a new barber chair with all the equipment and a book of instructions on how to cut hair with (?) shears.

Ernie wills David Stewart a coupon redeemable for a free challenge in the 74-75 school year.

Bridgest Alexander wills Kim her weat in Mrs. Seago's room

Shirley Thompson wills Donna Evans, Pickle Pickard, Debbie Fuller, Denise Carter, and Coy Stephehn a bear and a Daddy.

Patty Haney wills to Debbie Goodwin ten easy lessons on how to be faithful to James.

Dale Trimble wills Bruce Bryant my 24-hour hall pass, and David Hearne a geometry book so he will understand what a triangle really is.

I will Benjie Newsom a so-called Mickey-Mouse personality.

Pam wills to Howie a storage box for his tape player while it is held captive.

I will to Melissa Harvell a boy named James, a night out, her first one, and to Garvin Bridges I leave my hear.

To all the junior and sophomore girls who worry about us backstabbing can stop worrying, because we are leaving them for you to babysit.

Guyla wills Fanny, Sandra, and Renee a good time as seniors, whenever it comes, and to Renee one free dancing lesson with Jimmy Keith at Marion's Ferry.

Diana Allgood wills Paula Allgood, Sherry Jones, Lester Carr, Charles McMullen, Randy Meadows, Kathy Hutson, and the C.I.A. the wonderful experiences I had with Christ.

Doyle Womack wills Rhonda Flanagan a date tot the prom next year, and a good time June the First.

Danny Roundtree wills Sammy Little one good year in A'Cappella, and to James Lowry all the telephone poles in Lufkin to eat on.

Seniors will Allan Brown, the Ban (Super-sonics) Basketball team, and a larger quantity of dirty words to use when he doesn't get his way.

Sandra Little wills Barbara Bullard a dictionary of her own, Melissa Harvill another year and to Trisha Huntress, an Agent 38 spy kit.

Carolyn and Cindi will Jennie and Renee lots of good times their Senior year and a good-looking guy to sit with at lunch; and to Gena Wade, alias knobby knees, someone else to tell her problems to next year.

Eddie Ditsworth wills a weight-watching plan to Andy Modisette.

Rick Martin wills Tom more luck in the future with his love life and many happy times with "Barbra."

A Senior boy wills Bruce Honea a clean mouthpiece, two new mutes, a case of Vitalis, and a new chalk-free coat to keep his swelled head warm.

RE wills Paul Hartfield a pin to deflate his head so he will be able to get through the double doors in back of the Band Hall.

Elliott Emrick wills David Garrett 5 inches so he could be taller than all of the girls he hustles; and to Mr. Holder another snake to bite him, one pound of tumpers, and lickers, and new jokes for his next Geology Class.

Ronnie wills Joey his seat in A'Cappella choir and his trouble getting off work for choir engagements.

Terry Chandler wills Debbie Williamson all my good times and a new "W."

Lilly and Maylene will their backstabbers a release form from Sammy and Gary and another Senior girl's boyfriend to worry.

Paul McCurry wills Susie Robinson some Annie Green Springs, and one dozen eggs to pay back Barbara Brookshire and Tamesha Lindsey.

Burt Brookshire wills David Lively a dinner date with Ginny Temple and David Root a car ride with Enola Sims.

Jo Anne Pierson wills her friendship to all her prospective backstabbers; her beauty, to V.G.; her shape to Beatrice T.; and her love to Gregg.

Shari and Judy will to Squirrel, Granny and all their wonderful memories of the library; and to James Lowry, an unfrosted wig and someone to lean on constantly.

Paul McCurry wills next year's center of the football team 9000 headaches and not one bottle of aspirins to take.

Joy wills Renee the ability to outrun Pop Ward in the parking lot and the seat belts in my car because I've reformed.

Glenn Lenderman wills Norman Dickey his 1955 chopped hog, chrome chain and all his empty Harley oil cans to throw at oncoming cars.

Winifred Ferguson wills Bobby Glenn Harrison from Fred a year's supply of cinnamon suckers and a 4-year supply of letters stamped and addressed to TCU; and to Jeanetta her grade point average in Civics.

Suzanne Fitts wills Margie Sewell the best in life and better luck next time.

Jimmy Richardson wills Dick Hopson, Glenn Sullivan, and Gary Joe Craig a free ride on with the bull on the can.

We will Linda Lively the ability to accept her brother's choice and to stop trying to get him to date her friends.

Micki Skinner wills Susie Bryan longer activity periods to tell of last night's activities. From the two of us to Jose Villaneal a face full of expressions. From momma to Little David twenty girls full of love and affection just for you.

Jerome Washington wills Don "Cat" Moore and Jordan "Sleepy" Washington the ability to say thank-you after being picked up from basketball and football practice 100 times.

Judy Behannon wills Sam McCoy the ability to prove the theory that "Cowboys are Better Lovers."

The men of the A'Cappella Choir to James Lowery, a Hefty trash bag for the trash he picks up at All Region.

Anthony Pendland wills Golden Perry three good shouts at the trash can in Mrs. Allen's room.

Linda Modisette to Janet Modisette the rest of her life at LHS and better luck with her boyfriends and Mary Jane May all my senses.

Michael Miles wills David Milam a new horse catcher for his truck. Also Paul Westmoreland a gallon of Everclear and Robert Witt a new chip, for '74.

A senior wills Jive McCarty enough nerve to sit by his eighth-grade girlfriend at the A&W, and to Hollygrove Best Camper, a new girlfriend.

The 5th Lunch table from Gentlemen's restroom wills the Dove twins a method of keeping their lies from going astray.

To James Gilder, Anthony Pendland's sweetness and walk and number "34" from the sisters of 73.

Maylene wills all her love to Gary, her fellow sophomores a permission to stare full-time with all the benefits that come with it.

Lilly Barnes wills all her love to Sammy Polk, her job at Woodland Heights to Cheryl Tieuel, her beauty to Debra Brown, her body to Terry George, her soul to Anne Charles and (?) shears.

Ernie wills David Stewart a coupon redeemable for a free haircut in the school year.

Bridgest Alexander wills Kim her weat in Mrs. Seago's room

Debi Adams wills Barbara Bullard a year of laryngitis.

The senior members of the clarinet section will Tahryn Hughes a year's supply of used reeds, size 4½, and 1st chair because she deserves it.

To La Myrle Harper the best in the future and Juliet Houston the bathrooms at Lufkin High School.

David Lively wills Michele White another fun-filled Easter vacation.

Paul McCurry wills to Jane Duncan and Tamara Cox a separate lunch table in order that they will not have to whisper anymore; and Lynn Fussell a "sweet Polly Purebread Poster."

Rick Martin to Cindy Hall a new E.Y.C.

Debbie Courtney wills the juniors a new soap opera to replace "A Time for Tears" starring Esther and Rusty.

Cindy Fezaell and Debbie Boone will Lynn Fenton a sky high time as a Senior.

A Senior girl wills Rena Sheppard some common sense and some Ultra Sheen, a comb, a brush, and a whip for her unruly hair.

Clay Grider's "Mother" wills Monte Hinson another time at Oakley-Metcalf.

Second period wills Mrs. Null all the milk and sandwich creme cookies she can take, and a happy life to go with them.

A 'Cappella Seniors will to Sondra Walton the opportunity to wait her turn just as we had to do.

Betty Stewart wills James Lowry a new mama, whoever he can find, (if he can find one), and Dale Rhodes a good time in the orchard, with her her love waiting for him when he gets there.

I will Mr. Holcomb 20 lbs.

Karen Lindstrom wills to Jo Ann Williford her intelligence of music, to Danny Walker the hope of being a cowboy someday, and to Agent 007 good-luck.

Bruce Allred wills Rubin Allred his parking place on the vocational parking lot along with all the holes, beer cans, and cigarette butts left by former occupants.

a few Seniors will Mrs. Morrison a pair of clogs, so the Juniors and Sophomores will hear her coming.

To John Jasper a life-time supply of diet Dr. Pepper and the memory of Cindy Price.

Nan Conner wills Eddy Thompson her place in A'Cappella.

Stewart Grider wills Penny Windberg to Bo Thompson because he loves her so much, and room 220 at Woodland Heights to Glen Hargis.

Ben Tittle wills Steve Phillips an honorary membership in the Panther Pride since he kicks so good.

As a Senior Scholar about to accomplish my deed, I will this to someone who is badly in need. Ruth Dove to Wayne Bagley. Good-Luck.

I will to Benjie Newsom an appointment with Dr. Rubin.

Dale Rhodes wills to Marcie Dominey a "Mark Spitz" doll to play with next year.

Maylene wills all her love to Gary, her fellow sophomores a permission to stare full-time and to come with it.
Lilly Barnes wills all her love to Sammy Polk, her job at Woodland Heights to Cheryl Tieuel, her beauty to Debra Brown, her body to Terry George, her soul to Anne Charles and her desk in Mrs. Bradford's room to Carolyn Wilson.

David Lively wills Tamara Cox a tow chain for getting out of sticky situations.

The Seniors will Mrs. Morrison a St. Peter to stand at the Pearly Back Door to make sure that no one thereby passes.

Sallie Stockman wills Mylene Hall another year of Chemistry, if she so wishes and someone else to cut up with in 6th period; and to Pam Pickard another year of putting up with the "weirdies" in her classes.

Jana Denman, Susie Windsor, and Mark DeLaney will Jim Swor the ability to remember locker numbers, and our job 2nd period.

Jane McGilvra wills Sueda Starling good luck in band and throughout your senior year, and first chair at All Region next year.

Fearless Leader wills two more years of saxophone battling to Barbara and Glenora.

Marilyn White wills Jetta Koch and Rita Gray all the happiness of being cheerleaders and a great senior year.

Drama Class wills to Carol Ann, Eliza in "Pygmalion" or Katherine in "Taming of the Shrew" and the King Arthur she deserves.

Sally Ann Basey wills Margaret Eddings a boy she won't have to run after.

Ragan Tate wills Cindy Hall his place in the NHS.

Nan Conner wills Tamara Cox all her bad memories of David, because she wants to keep the good ones.

I hereby bequeath to Leigh Williams all of my chauvanistic tendencies. Signed Ragan Tate.

Dell Lewis wills Wendell Sowell his history notebook and more time to spend with girls; to Bobby Polk, a shirt that is made to wear out and a barrel of courage to help him to talk to girls; to Jimmy Erwin, his chemistry notebook; and to LaMerle Harper more time to travel on Paul Street and the privilege to attend the church of your choice regularly.

Mary Perryman wills Sherry Jones the ability not to play her horn like Jim Tinkle; and to Melanie Howell a double muzzle to share with the person of her choice.

Burt Brookshire and Gerald Kimmey will next year's paper editors the ability to stay a while.

Marilyn White wills Tommy Martin, Bob Killam and Troy Cook lots of good times at LHS and Mrs. Martin.

Susie Windsor wills Michele White a lot of great times with Annie. Also, the ability not to forget our Christmas Holidays.

The Senior Class wills David Stewart the Miss Congeniality award.

Wanda Mallon wills David Permenter, Mr. Tubbe's typewriter and Master Paper.

Lyska Nerren wills Bonnie Schrieber some keys, and to Merle Nerren another "Caveman;" to Debbie Wiliamson another "Wiggle;" to Brenda McKinnee a new way to keep Bonnie's cake on her own plate; and to Sheila Addison good luck with a certain person we both know.

Gerald, Robert, David, Chuck, Ben and David will Keith Jeffrey the honorary title of "Crisco Kid."

Mark wills Bruce Braden the presidency of the Dark Room and some Curl-Free.

Maylene wills all her love to Gary, her fellow sophomores a permission to stare full-time and to come with it.

Lilly Barnes wills all her love to Sammy Polk, her job at Woodland Heights to Cheryl Tieuel, her beauty to Debra Brown, her body to Terry George, her soul to Anne Charles and her desk in Mrs. Bradford's room to Carolyn Wilson.

Linda Williams wills her love and all the happiness that life can bring to Frederic Gilmore, and to Cassandra my charm, beauty and a boyfriend.

Sammy wills Lilly all of his love and Sandra Menefield a dog-tag and to Pepper (Jo-lazette) a two week session at Slenderbolic.

Jane Lazarine wills Andrea Weatherford all the good times I've had at LHS, to Bobby Jenkins a pen which he never seemed to have, to Jordan Washington a space on the honor roll to take my place, to Donna Turner and Kim Odom I will my desk and ll machines in VOE to their use and a tub of beer and a super duper scopor.

I will to Teresa Segrest the fun of being able to use her Senior privileges on Kevin. To Andrew Reihle a pair of high heel shoes.

Senior Class of 73 wills to Senior Class of 74 a free trip to Lucifer's Lair. Dennis wills Westley to Russell.

John Malnar wills Ed Berry all of the remainder of the brownie points left in Vo. Ag. III in Mr. Roger's class.

Sally Ann Basey wills Julie Hall and Rhonda Flanagan a great year in the Drill team plus Lonnie Stone and Mark Stevenson a new and better way to cheat in Spanish.

David Lively wills Linda Lively all of his passes and ability of how to get out of school without getting caught.

Marilyn White to next years two year members in the Panther Pride, the ability to take order and criticism from your "friends."

The Anonymous ex's of Eddy Thompson wills Harriet Wells a place in the chain of broken hearts.

Jim Dowling wills Leigh Williams and Michelle White a Bible.

Jerry Joiner wills Coy Stephens a stomp-broke cow, and to Joyce Richardson a handkerchief so she can wipe her nose and to Fungus a voice.

I leave to John Skinner a small can of Right Guard, to Leslie Mott my talent for not sticking out in a crowd and to Ray Shaw to all senior '75 band students that still like him.

Darlene Parish wills to Donna Manely, "precious" memories of LHS and a drill team to join in California. She wills Ricky Collins his life long dream—to be a "Big Bad Senior."

Pam, Karen, Darlene, Cindi, and Carolyn wills next year's drill team the ability to change clothes in a parking lot, on bus without being seen.

Preston McKenzie wills Donald David his sister afro sheen, J. Hartsfield a trip to Diboll, to Regina Hamilton common sense and a go-cart, to A. Maxie a step ladder and lart and to William Smith a home beside my Garage Can.

Dianne and Terri Sue wills Gary Bezanson another pair of boots and clubhouse parties to wear them to. Dianne Moore wills Gail Williams as many wonderful times with Jim as I have had with John, also another course in Driver's Ed.

Two Senior Girls will Kay Ramsey her very own bag of rotten leaves.

Jeannie Reese wills all the people in a Patti Hodges' sergeant group all the luck they could possibly be wished.

Jana Denman wills Patti Hodges the ability to hold her office longer.

Scott Presnall wills to his sister and Darlene Riley lifetime membership in the I.B.T.C.

Marcie wills her sister Laurie, 2 more wonderful years in this fantastic school.

I will Pam "Pickle" a gallon of pickles.

Jimmy Richardson wills to Patrick Hayes and Steve Register another night with I.W. Harper and the bull on the can.

Virginia Garner wills her cold heart to Beatrice Teal, her intelligent brain and when she puts on some weight, her beautiful clothes.

T.P. wills Jenny Gipson the ability to find a job where there is no one already employed and watching.

David Havard wills Janet Cantrell the name of Henry, a year with Mrs. Seago, and a great senior year. Also he wills Mrs. Brevell a flower for another blooming idiot, and for the trumpet section to take good care of Janet for him.

A certain senior girl wills to Rodney Moore some more ice cream and cake to eat with his peaches.

Karen Lindstrom wills Linda Williams her chair in A'Capella Choir, to Barbara all her excuses for skipping class, and to Babydoll all her love.

A group of senior girls will Tim Click another brown Swiss and any other cow he thinks he can get.

Pam Nash wills Cheryl Gilstrap an extra one to occupy the rest.

Pam and Sherry will Marcy Askins another pair of glasses before she wears those out staring.

Bob Pennington wills Carl Wallace his old name of Cotton.

The senior band men will the sophomore band girls some sophomore band boys who enjoy dating girls.

To Darlene Riley, some speech lessons.

Bob wills Boo his ring for as long as she wants it.

Cindy Spurgeon wills Leslie Mott the courage to make known to the world her miraculous over-night cures.

Randy Baker, Jeff Swearingen, and Jimmy Keith will Mr. Harry Williams three more thugs to babysit with next year.

To Elizabeth Randall a longer belt for her father to reach her with when she is sneaking around the side of the house.

Lynn Jones to Paula Small, a little geometry homework. To my sister, Sherry, my old gray goose and a little age.

To Johnnie Ross an extra pair of track shoes to keep up with Janice Douglas and the ability to learn on his own so she won't have to teach him.

Marilyn Griggs wills to David Hearne, Barbara Brookshire, Paula Bresie, and Cathy Slack a lifetime of precious and priceless memories.

Carol Townsend wills Dianne Bailey her old mouth.

Burt Brookshire wills the Drill Team Juniors a better trip next year; and Jim Swor a new "chig" maker.

To David M. a dead horse, to Dick H. a moose ring, to Steve R. one bottle of double eagle rot gut whiskey and to Charla and Glenn a bunch of little buckaroos. Dee.

Seniors "73" will the black and white saddle oxford Seniors of "75" a new trend in footwear and afros.

From Melanie Kaemmerling to Sherry Jones a pice of bread, to Marcia and Norman age, to Tahryn Hughes two eyes and a winkler, to her sister, Marcia, a trusty truck and a lot of patience.

To Diane Lawrence and Brenda Gibson from Melanie Kaemmerling and Lynn Jones their offices in the I.B.T.C.

Point to Pug, a motorcycle helmet, but for your own good, wait a while before you put it on.

M.K. to Bullfrog, the hope that you get it too and remember, Pickles loves you.

Bill Bowling wills to David Deaton the wonderful title of Duball. To Vicky, Darlene, and Melanie a permanent hall pass. To Janie, a cud to chew.

Marilyn White to Donna Manley and Mavis Rios more Spanish teachers like Mrs. Martin.

T.P. wills Flora all her old passes so she can leave campus when she wants. T.P. wills James Lowry a bottle of Zestabs so that he may live happily ever after.

Glenn Lenduman wills Bobby Dees all of his broken drum sticks, broken drum heads and worn out drums.

Debra Byerley wills Jana Denman another initial to go on her notebook.

Teresa Bowers Cloyd wishes Candy Bowers as much joy and luck her senior year as she has had.

Marilyn Griggs wills to Charlotte Johnson and Jane Tatum all the happiness and understanding in the world and loads of great times.

Molly Windham wills Jimmy Gay Tindall more blind dates with Johnny's friends and a dumpyard to get stuck with them.

Biology II Class wills Mr. Alford a grade book number of his own.

Dorothy Walker wills Paul Westmoreland a better way to get Ragsdale home.

Molly Windham and Dorothy Walker will Charles Murphy a pillow for Miss Boozer's class next year.

Eddie Ditsworth wills his brother Joey all the miseries of all my classes and a lifetime membership to Cocky Unlimited.

Yvonne and Enola will Vicki Tullos Howell a hidden zipper and Melanie Howell (not to make them any uglier, but to keep their big mouths shut).

Yvonne Rudd wills James Lowry lots more fun with "The Boys In The Band;" Sherry Jones and Betssy Williams many good times at LHS; David Hearne a mind that he can make up and one less person to hurt; and Marcie Dominey the best of luck with the best singer in the state and the greatest look-

Kevin and Mark do not will anybody anything, they just wanted to get their name in the last Panther Growls.

Sandra Little wills Sam a book on French etiquette; and Becca Scott her chair in band.

Marilyn White wills Laura Orman, Barbara Brookshire, Janet Tatum and Jayne Alexander lots of fun and good times in next year's Panther Pride Drill Team.

Connie Baggett and Terri Sue Barnes will Cathy Bradley and Donna Busby good memories, lots of luck, and all our blessings at LHS.

Brenda Widner wills Steve, Barry, Greg and Tom their driver's license, her Volkswagen, 100 gallons of gas, and lots of good times at LHS.

Sally Ann Basey wills all the sophomore girls a new pair of black and white saddle oxfords.

A Senior wills Dottie Lee someone else for her to go to their voice lessons and to start rumors on.

Sherry Cates wills Mr. Gassiott a pair of strong glasses so he can see everyone in the lunchroom.

Ken Leediker wills Rachel Carter a new rooster for next year, and more letters from FBC.

Pam and Sherry will Robert Boles and Ronnie Click a new vacuum cleaner cause the old one is worn out.

Eric Miner wills Martin Walden some bell-bottomed blue jeans and some pink fairy boots and a hairy upper lip in all attempts of becoming an LHS Freak; Leigh Ann Friday all his groovy times at LHS; and to Mr. Boyett, a large wart for every frog that has been and will be mutilated under his supervision in Biology.

Pat Hammer wills Cyndi Jasper and Denise Carter the ability to survive a lonely year at LHS without a boyfriend.

Deborah Stephens wills Pam Berryhill all the spring fashions in ModeOday and to Brenda Cherry, her skill in changing diapers; and to Dee her reclining seats, a pillow, and all the pigs at Ellen Trout.

Lou Ann Holmes wills her sister, Jennifer, the sense to stay free and have as much fun as she did during her high school years; Mr. Holcomb all the Easter Bunnies he can handle; and Kathy Shelton, Beth Blackstock, Jennifer Holmes, Debbie Cotton, and Dennis Poplin much luck in finding a ride home next year.

A senior wills Captain Toothpick more retards like second period for sandbox class next year.

Jane McGilvra wills Pam Nerren the best of luck during the rest of your high school career also keep J.M. and D.B. in line.

Steve Hogue wills Robert Warren and Ron Shaefner the honor and prestige of position of coach of the golf team; to Philip Arnett the throne of the Pine Tree Groovers and a wild senior year; and to Julie Hall a clown suit, an artificial banana, and high Panther Pride kicks.

A Senior wills Boo Hoo a pair of elevated shoes and another seventh grader besides Panda Bear.