THE WHOLE family is ready to enjoy one of Bernestine's good meals.

GARNER Home HAS A HEAP O' LIVING

By KAY GIBBS

LEROY GARNER has packed a lot of living into his life, and with his eye on his family's future, he'll continue to be a busy man.

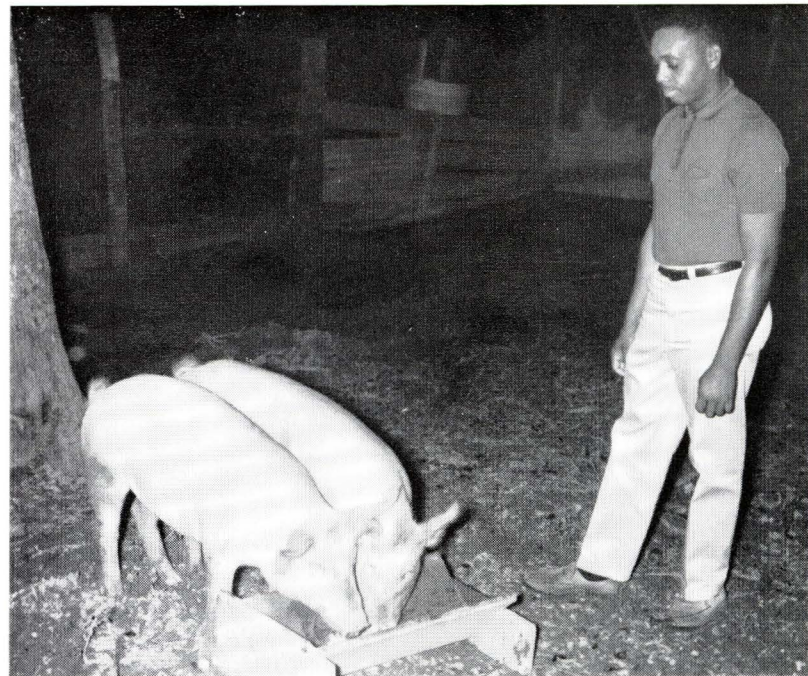

Leroy and his wife, Bernestine, live in a comfortable home with their three children, Darrell, 6; Diane, 5; and Lisa, 4. They are a happy family who work together in all they do, and the happy faces of the Garner children reveal the inner joy of their home.

The church is an important part of the Garner's lives. They all attend the Mount Pleasant Baptist Church at Cedar Grove. Leroy teaches the Junior class there and sings in the choir. He has been teaching Sunday School for about 15 years and has been singing for 12 years. He is president of the 12-member choir where he sings in the tenor section.

In his younger days he was a member of a male quartet. In his spare time, Leroy spends time writing gospel music. The church choir often sings his songs. One of his favorite compositions is "I Will See Jesus By And By."

A Nacogdoches born boy, Leroy moved to Lufkin about 20 years ago with his family, which has eleven children in it. He graduated from Dunbar High School.

Leroy has been busy through the years with several baseball teams too. He managed a senior league in softball for about 14 years. He also managed a pony league hardball team for some four years. And Troop 515 in the Cedar Grove Community remembers Leroy as their scoutmaster for about four years.

Leroy isn't the only busy member of the Garner family. Bernestine rises at 5:00 a.m. every morning to fix breakfast and get the family together for the day. After Leroy and the three children are fed and dressed, the school bus picks up Darrel to take him to his first-grade class at Central Independent School. Bernestine is employed at Freddie's Beauty Salon and on her way to work she drops off Lisa and Diane at the Day Care Center, where Diane is in Kindergarten.

Bernestine, a native of Kennard, is a graduate of the Ralph Bunche High School in Crockett. She is also a graduate of the Morgan Beauty College in Tyler. When Bernestine isn't washing or ironing or getting ready for work, she finds time to prepare some delicious meals for her family. Leroy especially enjoys her potato pie.

Diane spends her play hours with her Barbie doll. She likes best of all to comb Barbie's hair. Lisa is partial to the swing set in the back yard, but Darrel loves to play with his toy soldiers and watch "Combat" on the television.

The Garners are buying their house with nine acres of land. They have a fish pond behind the house where they already have been catching some nice fish. Leroy is raising two Yorkshire pigs, who are laughingly called "Charley" and "Sam." Only five months old, these pigs will be sold at maturity and the money will be placed in a college fund for Darrell's education. Leroy hopes to continue to do this until he has enough money saved for Darrell's college education. He plans to use the same plan for the girls.

Leroy and the family have taken several trips together. They have been to Six Flags Over Texas three times. Last summer they journeyed to Galveston. This year Leroy and Bernestine went to a baseball game in the Astrodome.

Leroy likes to spend his free time watching football and baseball. He also does his own mechanic work on his car. He's pretty handy with lumber and a saw too. He has made some lovely bookcases, a round coffee table, and a magazine stand for their home. He and Bernestine recently painted the kitchen.

He has been employed at the Foundry for four years. He previously worked on the yard crew, but he works now in the Pipe House.

Leroy's firm religious beliefs have established a sound foundation for his home and family. He is secure in the knowledge that he is working with his family for a happy future. All this accounts for the joy in the Garner home.

Setting For A Brighter HOLIDAY

BY STEVE ELLINGSON

No matter whether we live in the south, or the north, snow is an integral part of Christmas. Otherwise, how could Santa get around with his sleigh? Since snow is such an important part of Christmas and since everyone wants to achieve a beautiful holiday setting in their yard, we have created the Snow family pictured here. No matter what the temperature, here is a snow family that will last, not only for days or weeks, but for season after season. A more cheerful, gay and lighthearted family you never did see. They'll add a dazzling touch to your yard and boost the holiday spirits of your whole neighborhood.

Father Snow is over five feet tall, and of course, Mother Snow, the two youngsters and the dog are all in proportion. Each is printed in bright and waterproof colors. Like billboards, they will withstand severe outdoor weather and last for many seasons. You may place them on your roof as well as in your yard. Because of their light colors, they show up real well at night time when lights are turned on them.

Making the Snow family is certainly easy. The large pictures come to you printed in bright and waterproof colors. All you need do is glue the pictures to plywood, then saw them out. After that they are ready to go on display. Complete directions come with each set.

To obtain the snow family pictures No. C-6 send $5.00 by currency, check or money order to:

Once you get a mouthful of very hot coffee, whatever you do next is going to be wrong.

The next great invention will be a pushbutton that pushes itself.

A woman walked into a psychiatrist's office leading a small white duck by a chain.

"What can I do for you, madam?" asked the psychiatrist.

"Oh, it's not me," said the woman, "It's my husband. He thinks he's a duck."

Natives who beat drums to ward off evil spirits are objects of scorn to smart American motorists who blow horns to break up traffic jams.

An economist spoke on the "whys" and "wherefores" of our economic system. He spoke for an hour and covered the subject well. Following him, the clergyman said:

"Ladies and gentlemen, what our speaker has been telling you is that, if your outgo exceeds your income, then your upkeep will be your downfall."

The big-game hunter took his wife on a safari. He bagged a few minor trophies but the great prize was the head of a huge lion by his wife. "What did she hit it with?" asked a friend admiringly, "that .303 Magnum rifle you gave her?"

"No," answered the husband. "With the station wagon we rented."

Sooner or later a man reaches his "B" period. That is: baldness, bridge-work, bifocals and bulge.

A phone operator asked a customer. "Do you have the area code?"

"No," came the reply, "just a bad case of hay fever."

Two foreigners took a room in a summer hotel. To their surprise, they were attacked by mosquitoes, an insect new to them. That night, as they turned off the light and went to bed, two fireflies flitted in through the window.

"It's no use," one groaned to the other. "They've come back with lanterns looking for us."

A father and daughter were held up by a masked bandit while driving the family nag to town. The father barely had time to whisper to his daughter, "Hide your diamond bracelet in your mouth."

The bandit took everything he could find and then drove off in their rig but he never found the bracelet. When he was out of sight the father observed, "It's too bad we didn't bring Mama. We could have saved the horse and buggy."

Vacations are great levelers. The person who takes one returns home just as broke as the persons who stayed home because he couldn't afford to go away.

A certain well-known San Diego judge attended a banquet at a local hotel recently. Upon entering, he checked his coat but neglected to get a check-stub in return.

When he was ready to leave he asked the attendant for his coat, which was promptly handed to him.

"How do you know this one is mine?" the judge asked surprised.

"I don't sir," answered the attendant, "but it's the one you gave me when you came in."

First salesman: "They say brunettes have sweeter dispositions than blondes."

Second salesman: "Don't you believe it! My wife was both and I didn't see any difference."

Mouth: The grocer's friend, the orator's pride, the fool's trap and the dentist's salvation.

On a crowded train, a little boy was sniffing repeatedly and loudly. A haughty matron finally asked him, "Have you a handkerchief?"

"Yeh," replied the offender, "but my mother won't let me lend it to strangers."

A Naval air squadron was operating from a carrier in the Pacific on a peace-time exercise under the strictest orders that radio silence be maintained in all flights. Suddenly the officers in operations heard a voice exclaim over the radio: "Brother am I fouled up!"

The senior operations officer grabbed a microphone angrily and commanded: "Will the pilot who just broke radio silence identify himself immediately!"

A few seconds of deadly silence followed, and then a voice came floating back, "I'm not that fouled up!"

A farmer, paying his first visit to the seashore, asked a boatman if he could buy some water to take home to show his wife. The boatman assented and charged the farmer a quarter. A few hours later the visitor returned to the shore. By now the tide had gone out and the man gazed open-mouthed at the spectacle. "By cracky, mister," he said, "You've done a good business today."
