OUR CHURCH STAFF

Dear Parishioner,

In this directory are the names of the Saints who serve their Lord through the extended family group called St. Cyprian's Parish. It is incumbent upon each of us to endeavor to fulfill each of those callings, to be a saint for God and a participating member of His family of St. Cyprian's.

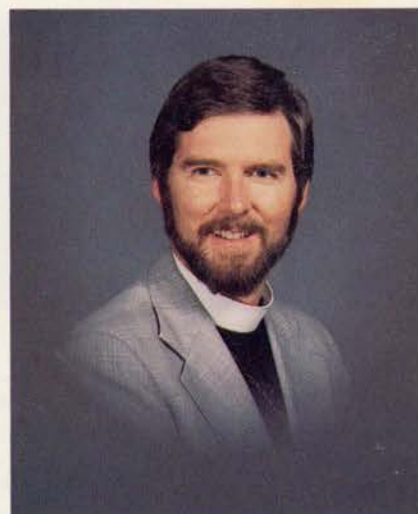

Though directories are normally used to merely find phone numbers and addresses, this directory is designed to help promote the "family" nature of our parish and thus encourage our efforts to be God's servants to the community of Lufkin. Using the pictures, the directory of groups and activities and the directory of members we hope that you will feel more acquainted with members you don't know well, become interested in more of the groups and activities and feel better able to call upon other members of our "church family" for a growing sense of Christian love and service together.

There is much that each of us can contribute to the life of St. Cyprian's Parish in our efforts to be a faithful servant of our Lord, hopefully this directory in a small way can help to encourage us in these efforts.

Yours in Christ,

REV. STEPHEN H. BANCROFT

The Church: 1906-1929

The Church: 1929-1972

The organization of the first Lufkin Episcopal congregation began in 1893. Rev. George L. Crockett conducted regular monthly services meeting first in the R. B. Shearer house, then the courthouse and the public school building before settling into the E. T. Tysinger's private school.

"During this time (1895), opposition developed in the town against the church, chiefly among the older inhabitants, who did not understand the church or its system," Rev. Crockett wrote.

Services were not held again until September 28, 1903 in the Hoo-Hoo Hall, a lumberman's social organization. The hall remained the church's home until December, 1906 when a new frame church was dedicated on the corner of Second and Paul Streets. St. Cyprian's membership began to increase, and between 1919 and 1922, the mission was able to build a rectory next to the church.

In 1929 the old white frame building was remodeled inside and out. The steeple was removed, the outside was brick-veneered and a new pipe organ was installed.

The old rectory was torn down in 1941; and the new rectory, still in use, was built at 116 W. Menefee. A parish hall was constructed at the site of the old rectory. St. Cyprian's became a parish in the Diocese of Texas in 1943. Between 1949 and 1955, the parish hall was enlarged and Sunday School classrooms were added to meet the needs of the rapidly growing congregation.

Rev. John Caskey became rector of the church in 1955, and served the parish through December, 1977. The church complex at the corner of Second and Paul Streets served the needs of the parish until October, 1969, when a fire gutted the sanctuary. Services were held in the parish hall until July, 1972, when the new church plant on John Redditt Drive was dedicated. The old church sanctuary has been restored by the Lufkin Service League, and now serves as an East Texas Museum and art gallery, the Historical and Creative Arts Center.

Rev. Stephen H. Bancroft became rector in March 1978. The active parish list has grown to approximately 620 individuals.

One of the conditions of Rev. Caskey's call was that he charter a school. The school is now fully accredited and serves a student body of 346 children (3-year-old kindergarten through 7th grade). Rev. Dr. George Pence was associate rector and head-master from June, 1979 until June, 1984.
