Mr. I.D. Henderson Jr.

A Man of Courage

In 1951 Mr. I.D. Henderson left Lufkin to enlist in the Army at Fort Sam Houston. It was through the Army that Mr. Henderson gives credit for opening his eyes to a bigger world. He went on to re-enlist and serve his country for 20 years.

Upon returning to Lufkin, Mr. Henderson continued his calling to serve through efforts to uplift his community. In his efforts to serve in an elected position, he realized that as long as the elections were city wide and or county wide, it would be almost impossible for an African American to be elected. Therefore, he filed suite that was heard by none other than Justice Williams Wayne Justice. They won.

Mr. Henderson went on to be the First African American elected to any seat in Angelina County and the first African American County Commissioner. He served as County Commissioner for 20 years.

Mr. Henderson founded the Association of Black County Commissioners, President of our local Citizens Chamber of Commerce and President of the Cedar Grove Water Supply. He also served as president/chairman of Pinewood Park Apartments. There have been only three African American County Commissioners for Angelina County.

A man of the people, a pioneer, and man of courage – Mr. I. D. Henderson, Jr.

Henderson blazed trail for blacks in county government in Angelina, state

By CHRISTINE A. BLANCK

He was a pioneer and a trailblazer. I.D. Henderson Jr. was the first African American to be elected to the Angelina County Board of Commissioners in 1971.

Henderson served on the board for 20 years, during which time he helped to bring about many changes in the county's government.

Henderson was a member of the Texas Black Caucus, a group of African American legislators who worked to improve the lives of African Americans in the state.

Awardee

Kenneth Timmons, Sr.

Born and raised in Angelina Co, he is proud of his heritage, Mr. Timmons believes his strength came from the tight community of African Americans here in Lufkin. African Americans stuck together.

Mr. Timmons grew up in Shiloh Baptist Church of Lufkin. He remembers fondly he education in the Lufkin schools.

Mr. Timmons contributed the strict hand of Coach Redd in making sure the boys behaved. He demanded respect. If you were ever caught doing something you were not supposed to do, Coach Redd would carry you to the "Board of Correction".

His first form of activism was with some of his classmates they attempted to integrate the Lufkin Dairy Queen. They were trying to let the whole town know that the Black students were just as good as anyone else. Respect, that is what it was all about.

In September of 1964 he went to the Air Force. His first station was in South Dakota, Strategic Air Command near Rapid City, South Dakota. He did his time in the military and returned to Lufkin. Big changes had occurred upon his return. Mr. Timmons worked at Lufkin Industries for ten years and in 1976 he went to work for Perry Brothers as their first Black manager in Lufkin.

It was I.D. Henderson that encouraged him to seek election to County Commissioner for Precinct Two in Angelina Co. Even though they were cousins, Mr. Henderson felt he could do the job. He was successful and spent 20 years in that position. As commissioner, his first priority was the roads in the county. He also served in the Health Board and Angelina County Economic Development Board. He was re-elected five times.

Mr. Timmons now serves as the President of Angelina County Citizen's Chamber of Commerce. Living and serving in Angelina County has been a joy. Although I am retired, I am still committed to giving service to the community

Herman Woolbright

I believe that we were all put here on earth for a particular purpose, and it is up to us to find out what our purpose is. In order for us to fulfill our purpose, we were all sent to this earth with certain talents or tools to work with, or otherwise we would be of very little use to anyone.

My purpose in life may be so different from yours that it just does not make any sense to you, but we are all different. Our main purpose for being here is to serve God and to be of service to our fellow man. I truly believe that my purpose for being here is to lead people in some capacity.

I have been involved in public service since I was 22 years old, and I have never regretted one minute of that time. After being here in Huntington for more than 22 years, I am still being asked the question, "What brought you to Huntington and what has kept you here?"

We have gained so many good friends, and have had the pleasure at meeting so many interesting people. We have been able to get involved with so many things here in the Huntington community. When we got here I found that the Pilgrim Home Church needed another deacon, the young ladies in the community needed the wisdom of my wife to help guide them in the right direction. Just a few years later the city needed to appoint a new council member, and I was asked and accepted that position.

Now, just a few more years later the city needed to appoint a new mayor, and so we stepped in again to try and serve the people. I do believe that we should all find out what it is that we should be doing and get about doing it.

As the first Black person elected to the Lufkin City Council, Mr. Boyd set the mark for excellence in City Government. He was elevated to the position of Mayor Pro Tem and honored for outstanding service as a member of the Attorney General's Municipal Advisory Committee. Mr. Boyd participated in numerous civic and social activities. He was active in uplifting African Americans in the National League of Cities, National Black Caucus of Local County Extension Program Building Committee, Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Texas F&AM, Angelina County Citizens Chamber of Commerce, NAACP, President of the Concerned Black Men of Lufkin Coalition of Black Democrats and the A.
