No person, nothing in all the universe, no chain of circumstances, can by any possibility interfere between me, and all joy, all good. To help ourselves and others, we must think God's thoughts after him.

To affirm any thing is to assure its possibility, even in the face of all contrary evidence that it is so—

We can compel ourselves to cease quibbling, and go to work to prove the rule, each one for himself—

"Thou shalt deem a thing, and it shall be established unto thee" Job 22:28

Pain, sickness, poverty, old age and death, cannot touch me, for they are not real— There is nothing in the universe for me to fear, for greater is he that is within me (true self) than he that is in the world— God says, "I will contend with him that contendeth with me". Repeat the following af-

Affirmations by a wonderful man

No person, nothing in all the universe, no claim of circumstances, can by any possibility interfere between me and all joy, all good.

To help ourselves and others, we must think God's thoughts after Him.

To affirm anything is to assure its possibility, even in the face of allcontrary evidence that it is so.

We can compel ourselves to cease grumbling, and go to work to prove the rule, each one for himself.

Thou shalt deem a thing, and it shall be established unto thee" Job22-38

Pain, sickness, poverty, old age, death cannot touch me, for they are not real.
